The Hell of War Comes Home Owen W. Gilman Jr., 2018-02-09 Owen W Gilman Jr stresses the US experience of war in the twenty first century and argues that wherever and whenever there is war there will be imaginative responses to it especially the recent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Since the trauma of September 11 the experience of Americans at war has been rendered honestly and fully in a wide range of texts creative nonfiction and journalism film poetry and fiction These responses Gilman contends have packed a lot of power and measure up even to World War II s literature and film Like few other books Gilman s volume studies these new texts among them Kevin Powers s debut novel The Yellow Birds and Phil Klay s short stories Redeployment along with the films The Hurt Locker American Sniper and Billy Lynn s Long Halftime Walk For perspective Gilman also looks at some touchstones from the Vietnam War Compared to a few of the big Vietnam books and films this new material has mostly been read and watched by small audiences and generated less discussion Gilman exposes the circumstances in American culture currently preventing literature and film of our recent wars from making a significant impact He contends that Americans inclination to demand distraction limits learning from these compelling responses to war in the past decade According to Gilman where there should be clarity and depth of knowledge we instead face misunderstanding and the anguish endured by veterans betrayed by war and our lack of understanding

Field and Stream, 1930 River Warfare in Vietnam Robin L. Rielly, 2024-02-19 America's entrance into the wars in Vietnam came as a result of several factors. Among them was the necessity of bolstering French influence in the area in the face of mounting communist expansion. This expansion was intensified by the outbreak of the Korean War, making it necessary for the United States to revamp its Southeast Asian policy. During the French era control of Vietnam's rivers, streams, and canals became necessary. This led various factions to develop specialized military units heavily dependent on new types of river craft that could traverse the myriad waterways in Vietnam. The focal point of this study is a new assessment of the conduct of river warfare. Drawing on little known French Vietnamese and American sources and materials, it sheds light on an important aspect of the Vietnam War. Chapters also detail numerous aspects of river warfare not generally covered in other books on the subject. Scientific American, 2002 The Cyber Shadow Vincent Lopez, 2019-03 The new state-of-the-art New York Power Electric Company has just been hacked. The cyber attack on its nuclear reactor is facing a meltdown. Were the Russians behind the cyber attack? Is this a prelude to war? The Baltic nations of the former Soviet Union are on edge as rebels loyal to Russia are advancing on the capital of Ukraine. NATO and American forces are moving deeper into Eastern Europe as a third world war seems inevitable. In days, Russia is planning the largest cyber sneak attack on America. The threat does not stop there as fully armed killer drones are attacking the Nation's Capital. Who or what is behind these drones is a mystery. A shadow is cast deep inside the secret world of cyber warfare. A simple tap of the return button and the world could be sent into a chaotic tailspin. Whoever controls this technology controls the world. Jarden

The first novel written on metaphysical intelligence, 2024-09-21 Chief Floyd was restlessly tossing and turning in the spacious bedroom on the upper floor of his specially designed residence for laboratory staff. When he finally fell asleep, the light from the orange night lamp beside him grew increasingly dim as if there were a curtain in front of it. Floyd was having a bad dream. His entire body was drenched in sweat. He had turned onto his left side tightly, pulling his knees together, placing his hands between his knees as if he were cold and grinding his teeth unconsciously. Strange creatures with terrifying faces, dressed in black, appeared in front of him. He couldn't tell how many there were. They formed a circle around his bed, walking slowly with eerie stares and peculiar movements. Their eyes burned like fire, and they kept repeating a word that was easily understandable when listened to carefully but which he had never heard before. Jardeeen, Jardeeen, Jardeeen, Jardeeeeen.
