American Sniper Vietnam:

Carlos Hathcock - Vietnam's Most Wanted Sniper Edgar Wollstone,2020-12-30 CARLOS HATHCOCK VIETNAM S MOST WANTED SNIPER Carlos Hathcock the man known to many in the US as the deadliest American sniper indomitable and fearsome an indispensable asset during the Vietnam War is a soft spoken and gentle family man to his folks The man dressed in the green marine uniform flaunted a white feather on his hat a sheer badassery making open ribaldry of the enemy forces and daring them to spot him amidst the green patina of rice fields in Southern Vietnam This habit of Carlos had earned him the moniker White Feather As was common during war the enemy had placed a few thousand dollars bounty on many US snipers But Carlos notoriety and badassery was so famed and feared among the enemies that they placed a whopping 30 000 dollar bounty on his head With 93 confirmed kills and over 300 unconfirmed Carlos had sealed his place among the world s deadliest snipers Crawling his way to the den of his target waiting in the prowl embracing the stillness of the dead pulling his trigger with immaculate precision and returning his way to his tent on the hilltop undetected with such finesse and expertise that Carlos makes it all look effortless But knowing the nuanced details of his painfully sluggish mode of transport that would take at least days before he worms his way through the swampy and muddy rice fields during day and night one cannot stop to think what a harrowing experience it would have been Carlos himself was homesick and lonely but that didn t dent his resolve to butcher the men who had no qualms in firing away at his fellow marines The lonely nights that Carlos spends ruminating on his bunker on the hilltop listening to the wind howling through every chink on the makeshift roof he was reminded of his grandma s cottage in the countryside in Arkansas How lovely and boisterous had those days been Carlos was nostalgic and his heart had doddered off to a place of remove It happens often on nights like these This is a riveting tale of an US marine who was enamored by his profession lived and died completely surrendering to the sport of sniping His tale of scaling great heights and eventually losing it all is equally inspiring and heart breaking Crosshairs on the Kill Zone

Charles W. Sasser,Craig Roberts,2004-07-01 From the jungles of Vietnam to the unforgiving deserts of Afghanistan and Iraq one breed of soldier has achieved legendary status in the arena of combat the sniper From the authors of the classic sniper chronicle One Shot One Kill comes a new generation of true tales from some of the most expert and deadly marksmen in the world Meet Adelbert Waldron II whose 109 confirmed kills in Vietnam made him the most successful sniper in American military history and Tom Moose Ferran who coined the term Fetch whereupon the infantry would retrieve the sniper s dead quarry Also included are stories from snipers in Beirut the Bosnian conflict and both wars with Iraq including the feat of Sergeants Joshua Hamblin and Owen Mulder who took down thirty two enemy soldiers in a single day outside Baghdad in 2003 The military sniper has evolved into one of the most dangerous and highly skilled warrior professions They suffer through weather terrain and enemy action lay unmoving for days on end and take out their targets with unerring accuracy proving that the deadliest weapon in any battle anywhere in the world is a single well aimed shot Inside the Crosshairs

Col. Michael Lee Lanning, 1998-07-29 The American sniper could be regarded as the greatest all around rifleman the world has ever known At the start of the war in Vietnam the United States had no snipers by the end of the war Marine and army precision marksmen had killed more than 10 000 NVA and VC soldiers the equivalent of an entire division at the cost of under 20 000 bullets proving that long range shooters still had a place in the battlefield Now noted military historian Michael Lee Lanning shows how U S snipers in Vietnam combining modern technology in weapons ammunition and telescopes used the experience and traditions of centuries of expert shooters to perfect their craft To provide insight into the use of American snipers in Vietnam Lanning interviewed men with combat trigger time as well as their instructors the founders of the Marine and U S Army sniper programs and the generals to whom they reported Backed by hard information and firsthand accounts the author demonstrates how the skills these one shot killers honed in the jungles of Vietnam provided an indelible legacy that helped save American lives in Grenada the Gulf War and Somalia and continues to this day with American troops in Bosnia

Marine Sniper Charles Henderson, 2001-10-01 The explosive true story of Sergeant Carlos Hathcock a legendary Marine sniper in the Vietnam War There have been many Marines There have been many marksmen But there has only been one Sergeant Carlos Hathcock He stalked the Viet Cong behind enemy lines on their own ground And each time he emerged from the jungle having done his duty His record is one of the finest in military history with ninety three confirmed kills This is the story of a simple man who endured incredible dangers and hardships for his country and his Corps These are the missions that have made Carlos Hathcock a legend in the brotherhood of Marines They are exciting powerful chilling and all true

dragged out of anonymity when it was revealed that he held the record among United States Marine Corps snipers with over 103 confirmed kills This story takes a look at the mindset and philosophy of an American Sniper as he is thrown into Arizona territory named as such because of its numerous Wild West style firefights at the height of the Vietnam War

Life of American Snipers: Chris Kyle and the Rest of the Elite Snipers Mark Dawn, 2015-02-27 American snipers have gained increased popularity after the production of the movie American Sniper based on the life of Chris Kyle who served as a sharp shooter in Iraq consecutively for about four periods Sharp shooter is the less common term to describe snipers whose role in history started in the World War Famous snipers have since emerged forming part of the elite Navy Seals While some people refer to snipers as cowards because they do seem to not be actively engaged in combat they have been hailed as heroes due to the reduced misses during combat and the flexibility of their attack to rely on stealth American snipers have played a huge role in eliminating some of the terrorists bent on causing terror around the world Snipers are originally meant to increase the chances of winning a war They do this by neutralizing the most dangerous people in war from a concealed distance and thereby serve to provide an advantage to their side American Snipers K.A. Harrison, America has for a long time produced outstanding sharpshooters like Chuck Mawhinney and Adelbert Waldron but the most memorable and deadliest are

Chris Kyle and Carlos Hathcock This is their story

Silent Warrior Charles Henderson,2000 In Marine Sniper the true life

missions of United States Marine Corps sniper Carlos Hathcock were revealed in compelling detail Now this incredible story of a remarkable Marine continues with harrowing never before published stories of a man who rose to greatness not for personal gain or glory but for duty and honor

Sniper of Vietnam War Edgar Wollstone, If there is any job that is the most misconstrued among the masses it is probably that of a sniper A common man cannot be expected to wrap his around the precise technicalities of a sniper nor can he be expected to understand the war diplomacy For him a sniper will be nothing but a glorified hunter But the contributions that a sniper offers to his country are priceless In the US military snipers have a unique place but the name Chuck Mawhinney stands out among for his badass sniping prowess He was one of the most fearsome snipers during the sanguinary Vietnam War with 103 verified kills During his illustrious military sniping career the most memorable and celebrated feat was when Chuck shot 16 victims in just 30 seconds The fact that this phenomenal

badassery was achieved at night during relatively bad weather highlights Mawhinney s sniping skills At the time Mawhinney was working in the region code named Arizona Territory A faction of armed North Vietnamese insurgent groups was seen moving towards the US base Due to the exceptionally bad weather the air cover had to retreat Mawhinney couldn t sit on his hands knowing that his marines were under siege He volunteered to provide cover in a river crossing area He carried an

M14 semiautomatic rifle and a Starlight scope and went to meet the enemy head on Mawhinney and his spotter stealthily marched along and positioned themselves and within a few hours they saw the NVA approaching At first only a scout had approached the river He noticed the scout signaling the rest of the band to make their move The deafening silence of the night made every move every step discernible As Mawhinney and his spotter lay in the muddy swamp breathing feebly they saw the entire team slowly cross the river Mawhinney still didn t start shooting He waited patiently until the men were well inside the water giving them no time at all to scatter He pulled his trigger from a distance of 25 to 75 meters killing one man after the other in clean precise shots He fired a salvo of shots at the beleaguered men and got them all in just a span of a few seconds The men began to retreat when they realized the NVA tried to fire back

Marine Sniper Charles

Henderson,1990-01-01 America's Most Lethal Snipers Colin Farmer, America has produced some astounding snipers

Most people know about Chris Kyle and Carlos Hathcock but America also had great snipers like Chuck Mawhinney Adelbert Waldron III and Eric England Sergeant Brian Kremer of the 2nd Ranger battalion once held the record for the longest recorded kill at a distance of 2 515 yards This record was set in Iraq in March 2004 Kremer s weapon was a Barrett M82A1 Here we focus on Adelbert Waldron Chuck Mawhinney Eric R England Carlos Hatchcock and Chris Kyle

Marine Sniper

Charles Henderson,1995-03-01 Vietnam, the Making of a Sniper Jerry Melvin Mitchem,2010 No other single force in Vietnam put as much fear into the hearts of the enemy nor gained his respect more than the American snipers. This is a story about one such Marine sniper team in 1964-65 Delta Two Foxtrot who helped blazed the trail gave their best who hunted the enemy in its own back yard took out assigned targets without the Viet Cong knowing they were present. Who was feared hated and yet respected by the Viet Cong. The sniper team was hunted and chased for days and used every trick they knew to get back to base alive. Some teams made it back and still some brave heroes didn't Semper Fi

Great American Snipers

Jerry Ralston, 2016-12-29 A look at two of the United States Military's most elite and successful snipers of all time. Carlos Hathcock, Chuck Mawhinney, Adelbert Waldron. There are few names at the top of the list of military war heroes as well known or inspiring than Carlos Hathcock. His career skills and tactics have had an enormous impact on military strategies across the armed services. A devoted Marine he couldn't have known how much he would change the face of military strategy for not only his branch but the Army and Navy as well. A war hero, landmine survivor, multiple sclerosis sufferer. Sergeant Hathcock certainly had an impressive life. The stories of his escapades in the jungles of Vietnam precede the quiet and gentle man and serve as a startling contradiction. He was a sniper who didn't like killing but he was damn good at it. In 1991 Chuck Mawhinney was reluctantly dragged out of anonymity when it was revealed that he held the record among United States Marine Corps snipers with over 103 confirmed kills. Here we take a look at the mindset and philosophy of an American Sniper as he is thrown into Arizona territory named as such because of its numerous Wild West style firefights at the height of the Vietnam War. Before there was American Sniper Chris Kyle there was Adelbert Bert Waldron. Waldron had over 109 confirmed kills in the Vietnam War. He received two Distinguished Service Crosses as well as a Silver Star for his exploits and heroism during the war. Yet he remains largely unknown to the public. Here we discuss some of the mystery and myths regarding Waldron, questioning the number of his kills, the reasons behind his questionable discharge and his shady dealings with international arms dealer Mitchell Werbell III

Special Forces Sniper Skills

Robert Stirling, 2012-12-20 Special Forces Sniper Skills is a hard hitting account of the soldiers' weapons and techniques used to coldly eliminate high value targets on the battlefield. Though many books have become best sellers through telling one side of the story a sniper's experiences a training manual or a weapons catalogue none before have combined the whole spectrum of a sniper's life and skills into one gripping book. This book examines the role of the sniper and the unique skills employed when serving as part of a Special Forces unit including the British SAS the US Navy Seals and the Russian Spetsnaz. The book is illustrated with photographs of every aspect of the sniper's trade and stories from the real life experiences of the author's comrades soldiers who have served in almost every overt and covert conflict since World War II

13 Cent Killers

John Culbertson, 2003-01-01 It's not easy to stay alive with a $1,000 bounty on your head. In 1967 a bullet cost thirteen cents and no one gave Uncle Sam a bigger bang for his buck than the 5th Marine Regiment Sniper Platoon. So feared were these lethal marksmen that the Viet Cong offered huge rewards for killing them. Now noted Vietnam author John J. Culbertson a former 5th Marine sniper himself presents the riveting true stories of young Americans who fought with bolt rifles and bounties on their heads during the fiercest combat of the war from 1967 through the desperate Tet battle for Hue in early 68 In spotter shooter pairs sniper teams accompanied battle hardened Marine rifle companies like the 2 5 on patrols and combat missions Whether fighting their way out of a Viet Cong kill zone or battling superior numbers of NVA crack troops the sniper teams were at the cutting edge in the art of jungle warfare showing the patience stealth combat marksmanship and raw courage that made the unit the most decorated regimental sniper platoon in the Vietnam War Harrowing and unforgettable these accounts pay tribute to the heroes who made the greatest sacrifice of all and leave no doubt that among 5th Marine snipers uncommon valor was truly a common virtue
