American Sniper Mustafa:

The New American War Film Robert Burgoyne,2023-10-10 A look at how post 9 11 cinema captures the new face of war in the twenty first century While the war film has carved out a prominent space within the history of cinema the twenty first century has seen a significant shift in the characteristics that define it Serving as a roadmap to the genre s contemporary modes of expression The New American War Film explores how in the wake of 9 11 both the nature of military conflict and the symbolic frameworks that surround it have been dramatically reshaped Featuring in depth analyses of contemporary films like The Hurt Locker Zero Dark Thirty Eye in the Sky American Sniper and others The New American War Film details the genre s turn away from previously foundational themes of heroic sacrifice and national glory instead emphasizing the procedural violence of advanced military technologies and the haptic damage inflicted on individual bodies Unfolding amid an atmosphere of profound anxiety and disillusionment the new American war film demonstrates a breakdown of the prevailing cultural narratives that had come to characterize conflict in the previous century With each chapter highlighting a different facet of war s cinematic representation The New American War Film charts society s shifting attitudes toward violent conflict and what is broadly considered to be its acceptable repercussions Drawing attention to changes in gender dynamics and the focus on war s lasting psychological effects within these recent films Robert Burgoyne analyzes how cinema both reflects and reveals the makeup of the national imaginary

American War Stories

Brenda M. Boyle,2020-11-13 American War Stories asks readers to contemplate what traditionally constitutes a war story and how that constitution obscures the normalization of militarism in American culture The book claims the traditionally narrow scope of war story as by a combatant about his wartime experience compartmentalizes war casting armed violence as distinct from everyday American life Broadening war story beyond the specific genres of war narratives such as war films war fiction or war memoirs American War Stories exposes how ingrained militarism is in everyday American life a condition that challenges the very democratic principles the United States is touted as exemplifying

International Perspectives on Rethinking Evil in Film and Television Tüysüz, Dilan,2020-12-22 Aestheticization of evil is a frequently used formula in cinema and television However the representation of evil as an aesthetic object pushes it out of morality Moral judgments can be pushed aside when evil is aestheticized in movies or TV series because there is no real victim Thus situations such as murder or war can become a source of aesthetic pleasure Narratives in cinema and television can sometimes be based on a simple good evil dichotomy and sometimes they can be based on individual or social experiences of evil and follow a more complicated method Despite the various ways evil is depicted it is a moral framework in film and television that must be researched to study the implications of aestheticized evil on human nature and society International Perspectives on Rethinking Evil in Film and Television examines the changing representations of evil on screen in the context of the commonness normalization aestheticization marginalization legitimization or popularity of evil The chapters provide an international perspective of the representations of evil through an exploration of the evil tales or villains in cinema and television. Through looking at these programs this book highlights topics such as the philosophy of good and evil, the portrayal of heroes and villains, the appeal of evil and evil's correspondence with gender and violence. This book is ideal for sociologists, professionals, researchers and students working or studying in the field of cinema and television and practitioners, academicians and anyone interested in the portrayal and aestheticization of evil in international film and television.

The Films of Clint Eastwood Matt Wanat, Leonard Engel, 2018-05-15. The indefatigable Clint Eastwood, the great old man of American film, is still controversial after all these years. Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood's 2014 American Sniper, a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war. Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date. The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging, race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work. As a collection, these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision, which is multifaceted and often contradictory, dramatizing complex issues in powerful, character-driven narratives.

The Hell of War Comes Home Owen W. Gilman Jr., 2018-02-09. Owen W. Gilman Jr. stresses the US experience of war in the twenty-first century and argues that wherever and whenever there is war, there will be imaginative responses to it, especially the recent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. Since the trauma of September 11, the experience of Americans at war has been rendered honestly and fully in a wide range of texts: creative nonfiction and journalism, film, poetry and fiction. These responses, Gilman contends, have packed a lot of power and measure up even to World War II's literature and film. Like few other books, Gilman's volume studies these new texts among them Kevin Powers's debut novel The Yellow Birds and Phil Klay's short stories Redeployment, along with the films The Hurt Locker, American Sniper and Billy Lynn's Long Halftime Walk. For perspective, Gilman also looks at some touchstones from the Vietnam War. Compared to a few of the big Vietnam books and films, this new material has mostly been read and watched by small audiences and generated less discussion. Gilman exposes the circumstances in American culture currently preventing literature and film of our recent wars from making a significant impact. He contends that Americans' inclination to demand distraction limits learning from these compelling responses to war in the past decade. According to Gilman, where there should be clarity and depth of knowledge, we instead face misunderstanding and the anguish endured by veterans betrayed by war and our lack of understanding.
