■ Braverman's Justice is the longest-running, most eclectic and off-beat series on the BBC's 5000-hour television in the 'White Jersey' tradition. 'White Jersey' means that the show's characters are not sophisticated, educated types, like the 'black-jerseyed' experts, journalists, and politicians. These characters have been given the status of genuine people by the BBC, after nearly 20 years of effort. Edward Lewis is the show's creator. He has been given a free rein to experiment with new television formats in his BBC bosses' basement. These programmes are White Jersey shows. So I have never been asked to do any of the BBC's off-the-wall programmes, like the 'black-jerseyed' police, medical, medical/white-jerseyed medical, and the like. I have never had any of the 'black-jerseyed' police programmes.
