Amour Rising Tai Gooden, 2014-04-14 Experience the unique and emotionally charged storytelling of Tai Gooden in her first published collection of poetry Amour Rising delves deep into the innermost thoughts of this intriguing poet Although her poetry is based on her observations and experiences as an African American woman many of the themes are universal to all people love relationships and dreams deferred The Refrain and the Rise of the Vernacular in Medieval French

Music and Poetry Jennifer Saltzstein, 2013 A survey of the use of the refrain in thirteenth and fourteenth century French music and poetry showing how it was skilfully deployed to assert the validity of the vernacular The relationship between song quotation and the elevation of French as a literary language that could challenge the cultural authority of Latin is the focus of this book It approaches this phenomenon through a close examination of the refrain a short phrase of music and text quoted intertextually across thirteenth and early fourteenth century musical and poetic genres The author draws on a wide range of case studies from motets trouv re song plays romance vernacular translations and proverb collections to show that medieval composers quoted refrains as vernacular auctoritates she argues that their appropriation of scholastic Latinate writing techniques worked to authorize Old French music and poetry as media suitable for the transmission of knowledge Beginning with an exploration of the quasi scholastic usage of refrains in anonymous and less familiar clerical contexts the book goes on to articulate a new framework for understanding the emergence of the first two named authors of vernacular polyphonic music the cleric trouv res Adam de la Halle and Guillaume de Machaut It shows how by blending their craft with the writing practices of the universities composers could use refrain quotation to assert their status as authors with a new self consciousness and to position works in the vernacular as worthy of study and interpretation Jennifer Saltzstein is Assistant Professor of Musicology at the University of Oklahoma Poems, for the First Time Collected and Edited: Memoir. Essay on the poetry of the Fletchers. Who wrote Brittain's Ida? Brittain's Ida, &c Phineas Fletcher, 1869 Arabic-Andalusian Poetry and the Rise of the European Love-Lyric 'Abdulwāhid Lu'lu'a, 2013 The idea of this book goes back to the author's college days in the Department of Foreign Languages in Baghdad where he learned that English poetry developed under the influence of foreign types of poetry including classical medieval and Renaissance He began to wonder whether Arabic poetry had a role in that development especially in the love lyric its main aspect He researched during a sabbatical year in 1971 1972 in Cambridge UK and collected more material during summer vacations and conferences in Europe By 2010 he had enough material to write this book and a probable second edition The book covers European poetry in the late Middle Ages and early Renaissance especially the rise of the first poetry in non Latin and on non ecclesiastical subjects as seen in the love lyrics of the troubadours The 12th century troubadour love lyric shows a clear influence of Arabic Andalusian poetry especially the new and non European attitude to love and women This new poetry spread to Sicily Italy and was popularized by Dante and his disciples A further development reached England in the 16th century best represented by Shakespeare

Murphy, 1999 When L'Amour wrote about a cave near a trail it was there Discover these caves and other natural landmarks that tell you about the land people and trails which L'Amour brought so vividly to life Step back into time to visit the lonesome places portrayed in his novels about the New Mexico Territory and from California to Alaska Bookseller's catalogues Upham and Beet messrs, 1853 The Harmonic Orator Patricia M.
