Bethlehem Postcard History:

Bethlehem William G. Weiner, Jr., Karen M. Samuels, 2011 Located in the Lehigh Valley along the Lehigh River Bethlehem was founded by Moravian settlers in 1741 In 1845 the traffic on the Lehigh Canal convinced the Moravians to open the town to outsiders who could purchase their land and buildings The former Moravian farmlands south of the river were soon developed into railroad lines industrial mills homes and Lehigh University One of the mills evolved into Bethlehem Steel once the second largest steelmaker in the United States

Dearborn County, Indiana in Vintage Postcards Milton A.

Masing, 1999 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America's history

Minnesota in the Mail Bonnie Wilson, 2004 Wilson highlights both the images and the curious stories behind them Using 185 postcards selected from the extensive collection of the Minnesota Historical Society she helps readers understand the needs and wants of postcard makers and senders at the same time sharing historical details that go beyond the captions and messages The postcards are grouped in four categories towns businesses families and vacations

Fashion's Missing Masses: The representation of marginalized populations in collections and exhibitions of dress

Kenna Libes, 2026-01-06 Fashion's Missing Masses fills a gap in literature on museums and fashion collections and focuses on the display of clothing and fashion that has historically been left out of the canon The fifteen essays in this volume span topics on Indigenous and traditional dress disabled and fat bodies and queer and ethnic identities Their authors study the ways that dress and textiles have been collected displayed and often ignored across a century and a half of museum exhibitions Representation and inclusion in fashion museums is a new and rapidly evolving area of research in the reexamination of dress history These chapters provide unique information and perspectives on curation collections management conservation and research which will be valuable to a wide group of audiences working teaching and learning in and about museums This volume touches on practical concerns of exhibition including mannequin availability and difficulties of mounting dress as well as broader questions of scholarship and activism that will be key for educators and researchers who wish to stay abreast of developments in this field Diversity in fashion is a hot topic and understanding the line between tokenization and representation in spaces of institutional authority is crucial to learning how we can better serve our diverse populations in the teaching of history

Postcards David Prochaska, Jordana Mendelson, 2010 Examines postcards as images that are carriers of text and textual correspondence that circulate images across boundaries of class gender nationality and race Discusses issues concerning the concrete practices of production consumption collection and appropriation

Bethlehem Revisited William G. Weiner Jr and Karen M. Samuels, 2014 Due in part to the Lehigh Canal and the Lehigh Valley Railroad Bethlehem evolved from a tranquil town to a modern industrial city. Built in 1829 the Lehigh Canal passed by the center of Bethlehem. With it brought a steady stream of outsiders who shaped and changed the community. The Lehigh Valley Railroad was established in South Bethlehem in the 1850s turning the city into a manufacturing center with such new industries as Lehigh Zinc and Bethlehem Steel as well as silk mills. Bethlehem Revisited captures a city in transition at a time when its streets could barely accommodate the influx of horses, trolleys, automobiles and pedestrians. Bursting at its seams with people, businesses and residences, Bethlehem comes alive through this collection of extraordinary postcards.

Charles William Dahlinger, 1980 Bethlehem Susan E. Leath, 2011 Situated on the west bank of the Hudson River, Bethlehem traces its history to the Dutch settlement era of the 1600s. Incorporated on March 12, 1793, Bethlehem's rich soil, abundant timber, river access and proximity to Albany drew Dutch, English, Scottish and German settlers. Bethlehem's farmers became known for their oats, hay, apples and dairy products. The year 1863 marked the coming of the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad and the beginnings of the town's transformation to a suburban community. This trend continued in the 20th century with the success of the automobile. In Bethlehem, images from the late 1800s to mid 1900s tell the story of the community's history through its many hamlets including Delmar, Elsmere, Glenmont, Selkirk, Slingerlands and North and South Bethlehem. Photographs of churches, schools, blacksmith shops, hotels, farmhouses and elaborate summer homes illustrate Bethlehem's journey from a rural farming community to a bustling modern suburb. The Greatest Story Ever Told

Douglas K. Mikkelsen, 2004 The 1965 film The Greatest Story Ever Told ranks among the most popular Jesus movies ever made. However, the film inevitably leads viewers to ask: Is that in the Bible, or did they make that up, or what? The Greatest Story Ever Told: A Silver Screen Gospel attempts to answer this question. Provided is a scene-by-scene summary of and commentary on the movie. The analysis is anchored by reviewing scenes of the movie alongside analogous events in the New Testament. The detailed commentaries also explore the relationship of the scenes to other ancient literary sources such as the Old Testament, Hebrew Bible, non-canonical gospels, apocryphal literature, ancient Jewish and Roman authors such as Josephus and Tacitus, and more.
