Between Women and Generations Drucilla Cornell, 2016-04-30 This book defies easy categorization but will be one of the most original thoughtful and genuinely interesting books published next year Before the author's mother died she asked her daughter Drucilla to write a book that would bear witness to the dignity of her death and one that her bridge class would be able to understand As if that wasn't difficult enough Drucilla's mother who had a degenerative disease decided to end her life by ingesting a lethal cocktail of drugs Drucilla was in the unenviable position of bearing witness to her mother's act Unsentimental yet poignant candid and courageous this is the book that Drucilla promised her mother she'd write Unlike her earlier academically oriented books Between Women and Generations is an intensely personal narrative which interweaves the personal and political decisions Drucilla's made throughout her life She uses the personal as a springboard to talk about larger philosophical issues such as how one achieves dignity in life and in death and the nature of intergenerational relationships between women Drucilla speaks candidly of her relationship with her mother about her decision to adopt a non-Western child and about her commitment to UNITY a cooperative of house cleaners in Long Island New York This book will resonate strongly with Western women

Inseparable Emma Donoghue, 2010-05-25 From a writer of astonishing versatility and erudition the much admired literary critic novelist short story writer and scholar Dazzling The Washington Post One of those rare writers who seems to be able to work on any register any time any atmosphere and make it her own The Observer a book that explores the little known literary tradition of love between women in Western literature from Chaucer and Shakespeare to Charlotte Brontë Dickens Agatha Christie and many more Emma Donoghue brings to bear all her knowledge and grasp to examine how desire between women in English literature has been portrayed from schoolgirls and vampires to runaway wives from cross-dressing knights to contemporary murder stories Donoghue looks at the work of those writers who have addressed the unspeakable subject examining whether such desire between women is freakish or omnipresent holy or evil heartwarming or ridiculous as she excavates a long obscured tradition of inseparable friendship between women one that is surprisingly central to our cultural history Donoghue writes about the half-dozen contrasting girl-girl plots that have been told and retold over the centuries metamorphosing from generation to generation What interests the author are the twists and turns of the plots themselves and how these stories have changed or haven't over the centuries rather than how they reflect their time and society Donoghue explores the writing of Sade Diderot Balzac Thomas Hardy H Rider Haggard Elizabeth Bowen and others and the ways in which the woman who desires women has been cast as not quite human as ghost or vampire She writes about the ever-present triangle found in novels and plays from the last three centuries in which a woman and man compete for the heroine's love about how and why same-sex attraction is surprisingly ubiquitous in crime fiction from the work of Wilkie Collins and Dorothy L Sayers to P D James Finally Donoghue looks at the plotline that has dominated writings about desire between women since the late nineteenth century how a woman's life is turned upside down by the realization that she desires another woman whether she comes to terms with this discovery privately comes out of the closet or is publicly outed She shows how this narrative pattern has remained popular and how it has taken many forms in the works of George Moore Radclyffe Hall Patricia Highsmith and Rita Mae Brown from case history style stories and dramas in and out of the courtroom to schoolgirl love stories and rebellious picaresques A revelation of a centuries old literary tradition brilliant amusing and until now deliberately overlooked Between Women Paula J. Caplan, 1981 Research on Women's Issues in Transportation, Report of a Conference National Research Council (U.S.). Transportation Research Board, 2005 Friendships Between Women Pat O'Connor, 1992 Reviews the issues and themes which indicate the importance and limitations of friendships between women The author explores the meaning of friendship to women at different stages in their lives and suggests an agenda for future research Between Rhetoric and Activism Susanne Kranz, 2015 The focus of this book is the All India Democratic Women's Association AIDWA within the larger context of contemporary Indian women's movements AIDWA is assessed and analyzed as a left oriented party affiliated all India women's organization An examination of its administrative structure provides a basis from which to compare the various state level approaches to activism The book sheds light on the ongoing theoretical debates of Marxism and feminism and their compatibilities in their Indian specific circumstances Investigating the first 25 years of AIDWA's existence 1981 2006 the book looks at the explicit relationship between the Communist Party of India Marxist and AIDWA and how both cooperate and define each other Series Gender Discussion Gender Diskussion Vol 25 Subject Sociology Politics Women's Studies Feminism India Studies History Resources in Women's Educational Equity, 1980 Literature cited in AGRICOLA Dissertations abstracts international ERIC ABI INFORM MEDLARS NTIS Psychological abstracts and Sociological abstracts Selection focuses on education legal aspects career aspects sex differences lifestyle and health Common format bibliographical information descriptors and abstracts and ERIC subject terms used throughout Contains order information Subject author indexes Woman Between Two Worlds Judith V. Olmstead, 1997 Dynamic opinionated gritty and charismatic Chimante Chumbalo successfully navigated male dominated factional politics experimenting with different strategies to create for her people the society that she wanted for herself Close Relationships Clyde Hendrick, 2000 The authors in the volume extend the reach of their comprehensive reviews into theoretically driven and innovating explorations The scope of coverage across and within chapters is striking The developmentalist the methodologist the feminist the contextualist and the cross culturalist alike will find satisfaction in reading the chapters Catherine A Surra The University of Texas at Austin The science of close relationships is relatively new and complex Close Relationships A Sourcebook represents the growing maturity of this multidisciplinary enterprise The volume offers 26 chapters organized into four thematic areas relationship methods forms processes and threats as well as a foreword and an epilogue The volume provides a panoramic view of close relationship research as it enters the 21st century offering highlights from current literature original research practical applications and projections for future research Relationship Methods includes both qualitative and quantitative chapters Relationship Forms includes many of the stages types and roles that characterize intimate relationships In a developmental fashion chapters address social networks children s friendships adolescent relationships adult friendships and friendships in later life Chapters on multicultural and multiracial relationships and gay lesbian and bisexual relationships illustrate the variety of relationship forms that the science of close relationships must consider The alignments and realignments of traditional family structure are considered in terms of contemporary marriage divorce and single parenting and remarried families Relationship Processes includes chapters on emotion attachment romantic love sexuality intimacy communication conflict social support and relational maintenance The important topic of gender concludes the section The shadow side of human nature is explored in the Relationship Threats section with chapters on infidelity and jealousy physical and sexual aggression depression and loss and bereavement A foreword by Ellen Berscheid sets the stage for this broad ranging collection of chapters Steve Duck and Linda Acitelli conclude with an epilogue that provides a new beginning for the science of close relationships
