Beyond Colonialism Development And Globalisation Social Movement And Critical Perspectives:

Beyond Colonialism, Development and Globalization Dominique Caouette,Dip Kapoor,2015-12-15 Development studies is in a state of flux A new generation of scholars has come to reject what was once regarded as accepted wisdom and increasingly regard development and globalization as part of a continuum with colonialism premised on the same reductionist assumption that progress and growth are objective facts that can be fostered measured assessed and controlled Drawing on a variety of theoretical perspectives and approaches this book explores the ways in which social movements in the Global South are rejecting Western centric notions of development and modernization as well as creating their own alternatives By assessing development theories from the perspective of subaltern groups and movements the contributors posit a new notion of development from below one in which these movements provide new ways of imagining social transformation and a way out of the developmental dead end that has so far characterized post development approaches Beyond Colonialism Development and Globalization therefore represents a radical break with the prevailing narrative of modernization and points to a bold new direction for development studies    Beyond Colonialism, Development and Globalisation Dominique Caouette,Dip Kapoor,    Unravelling the Mysteries of Africa's Underdevelopment W.

Forje,2020-05-19 Unravelling the mysteries of Africas underdevelopment presents an Afrocentric ideological understanding of the continents fragmentation a scientific and objective Mijadala discourse as well as an approach of how to move progressively and sustainably Africa forward The breadth and depth of the book shows the unwavering impoverishment and urgent need for the continent to stand up and take the bull by the horn It offers an inspiring means of grappling with the continents problems to build the change we want An African Wealth of Nation not the continent of collapsed failed states under the governance construct of centralised authoritarian regimes It is a thought provoking discourse that challenges us all to be inherent participants in the reconstruction of a Brave New Africa far beyond the 21st Century    Doing Critical and Creative Research in Adult Education Bernie Grummell,Fergal Finnegan,2020-05-11 Scholarship on adult education has fueled a high level of methodological creativity and innovation in order to tackle a diverse range of issues in a wide range of settings and locations in a critical and participatory manner Adult education research is marked by the desire to do research differently and to conduct critical research with rather than about people which requires theoretical and methodological creativity This entails a particular approach to how we seek to know the world in collaboration with people to rupture hierarchical relations and to create new collaborative spaces of learning and research that encompass the diversity of people s life experiences Doing Critical and Creative Research in Adult Education brings together both leading and emerging scholars in adult education research in order to capture the vitality and complexity of contemporary adult education research This includes contributions on biographical narrative embodied arts and media based and ethnographic methods alongside the critical use of quantitative and mixed methods This distinctive and rich methodological contribution has a general

relevance and usefulness for all researchers and students in the social science and humanities which draws attention to the importance of critical and creative participatory learning processes in human life and learning Development Education in Policy and Practice Stephen McCloskey, 2014-04-09 Development education is a radical form of learning that addresses the structural causes of poverty and injustice in the global North and South This volume debates development education practice and the policy environment in which it is delivered It affirmatively points to the transformative power of education as a means toward social change Geopolitics and Development Marcus Power, 2019-01-25 Geopolitics and Development examines the historical emergence of development as a form of governmentality from the end of empire to the Cold War and the War on Terror It illustrates the various ways in which the meanings and relations of development as a discourse an apparatus and an aspiration have been geopolitically imagined and enframed The book traces some of the multiple historical associations between development and diplomacy and seeks to underline the centrality of questions of territory security statehood and sovereignty to the pursuit of development along with its enrolment in various ordering practices In making a case for greater attention to the evolving nexus between geopolitics and development and with particular reference to Africa the book explores the historical and contemporary geopolitics of foreign aid the interconnections between development and counterinsurgency the role of the state and social movements in re imagining development the rise of re emerging donors like China India and Brazil and the growing significance of South South flows of investment trade and development cooperation Drawing on post colonial and postdevelopment approaches and on some of the author s own original empirical research this is an essential critical and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex and dynamic political geographies of global development Primarily intended for scholars and post graduate students in development studies human geography African studies and international relations this book provides an engaging invaluable and up to date resource for making sense of the complex entanglement between geopolitics and development past and present Decolonization and Anti-colonial Praxis , 2019-06-07 Decolonization and Anti colonial Praxis presents research on contemporary forms of decolonization and anti colonialism in practice It pertains to the ways in which individuals groups and communities engage with the logic of epistemic colonial power within areas of citizenship migration education Indigeneity language land struggle and social work The contributions in this edited volume empirically document the conceptual and bodily engagement of racialized and violated individuals and communities as they use anti colonial principles to disrupt criminalizing institutional discourses and policies within various global imperial contexts The terms Decolonization and Anti colonialism are used in diverse and interdisciplinary academic perspectives They are researched upon and elaborated in necessary ways in the theoretical literature however it is rare to see these principles employed in applied forms Decolonization and Anti colonial Praxis provides a much needed contemporary and representative reclamation of these concepts from the standpoint of racialized communities It explores the frameworks and methods rooted in their indigeneity cultural history and memories to imagine a new future The research findings and methodological tools presented in this book will be of interdisciplinary interest to teachers graduate students and researchers Contributors are Harriet Akanmori Ayah Al Oballi Sevgi Arslan Jacqueline Benn John Lucy El Sherif Danielle Freitas Pablo Isla Monsalve Dionisio Nyaga Hoda Samater Rose Ann Torres Umar Umangay and Anila Zainub The Role of Coloniality, Decoloniality, and Education in Shaping Perspectives on Extremism Helal Hossain Dhali,2024-03-19 This book extends a comprehensive overview of the treatment of extremism in education in Bangladesh using a study of perceptions among students to explore proactive measures for the prevention of various types and forms of extremism prevalent among youth It offers a critical holistic and student centred study of the role of formal education in shaping perceptions of extremism and intersectional differences among individuals drawing on data from university students The author employs post colonial theory and multicultural educational approaches to highlight how understandings of extremism differ across young adults and policymakers Ultimately it demonstrates that students overall understanding of extremism is much broader than that of policymakers and how understandings differ between male and female students at the intersection of rural and urban locations and socio economic positions As such it foregrounds a need to involve and organize formal education as a proactive means to raise awareness and counter all forms of extremism through incorporating specific teaching strategies into pedagogical practices to foster an anti communalist humanistic critical multicultural and cosmopolitan outlook among students It will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests across multicultural education comparative and international education the sociology of education extremism and conflict and peace studies not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,2008 Oceania Alfred Reginald Radcliffe-Brown, Raymond Firth, Adolphus Peter Elkin, 2006

Against Colonization and Rural Dispossession Dip Kapoor, 2017-08-15 Under the guise of development a globalizing capitalism has continued to cause poverty through dispossession and the exploitation of labour across the Global South This process has been met with varied forms of rural resistance by local movements of displaced farm workers small and landless women peasants and indigenous peoples in South and East Asia the Pacific and Africa who are resisting the forced appropriation of their land the exploitation of labour and the destruction of their ecosystems and ways of life In this provocative new collection engaged scholars and activists combine grounded case studies with both Marxist and anti colonial analyses suggesting that the developmental project is a continuation of the colonial project The authors then demonstrate the ways in which these local struggles have attempted to resist colonization and dispossession in the rural belt thereby contributing essential movement relevant knowledge on these experiences in the Global South A vital addition to the fields of critical development studies political sociology agrarian studies and the anthropology of resistance this book addresses academics and analysts who have either minimized or overlooked local resistances to colonial capital especially in the Asia Pacific and Africa regions

CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON NEOLIBERAL GLOBALIZATION, DEVELOPMENT AND EDUCATION IN AFRICA AND ASIA Dip Kapoor, 2011-10-30 This interdisciplinary collection of readings pertaining to schooling higher education adult and community development education indigenous education and social movement learning in the African and Asian regions is a contribution to anti critical colonial scholarship in comparative international education and the sociology of education The political and analytical standpoint that weaves through the text considers the imbrications of the colonial and imperial projects currently referenced as neoliberal globalization globalization of capitalism and development compulsory Eurocentric modernization and their attendant and mutual implications for education social reproduction and hegemony Counter anti hegemonic and indigenous education projects and pre existing alternatives are registered in the critique At last a remarkable collection of essays written by a range of scholars mostly originating from Asia and Africa demonstrating with admirable clarity how policies and practices of neo liberal globalization in those regions

cannot be adequately understood without appreciating how they are a product of the exploitative histories of colonialism Written with conceptual sophistication personal knowledge and deep conviction these essays represent a major scholarly intervention in contemporary debates about globalization and education Fazal Rizvi Professor Graduate School of Education University of Melbourne Australia Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign USA This intriguing and provocative volume deals with crucial intersections between global forces and national initiatives with respect to the most crucial agency of transformation education The cumulative efforts of this assembly of committed intellectuals reveal the forces that retard progress in the two largest continents and offers compelling suggestions on how to redefine the boundaries of power the contents of knowledge and the use of critical thinking to create alternative spaces of autonomy freedom liberation and empowerment Toyin Falola University Distinguished Professor Frances Higginbotham Nalle Centennial Professor University of Texas at Austin This volume well crafted by Dip Kapoor one of the finest scholars in the postcolonial education field brings together writers who examine processes of learning and education more broadly within the context of the dominant discourses of globalisation and development They unveil the underlying neocolonial neoliberal tenets of these processes strongly echoing what Hardt and Negri would call Empire In short another important reading resource provided by Dip Kapoor and colleagues Peter Mayo Professor Chair Educational Studies University of Malta Finally a much awaited intervention on neoliberal globalization from Asian and African perspectives This book makes a compelling case for a historically grounded regionally specific analysis of globalization The contributions are extraordinary for their textured and embedded analysis of neoliberal globalization One of those rare books that deserve to be read across the social sciences Sangeeta Kamat Associate Professor International Education University of Massachusetts Amherst USA Development and Social Change Philip McMichael, Heloise Weber, 2024-12-17 Development and Social Change explores the historical socio political and ecological aspects of development The Eighth Edition critically engages with the concept of development tracing its roots and examining its implications in the contemporary world Authors Philip McMichael and Heloise Weber use case studies and examples to help describe a complex world in transition Students are encouraged to see global development as a contested historical project By showing how development stems from unequal power relationships between and among peoples and states often with planet threatening environmental outcomes it enables readers to reflect on the possibilities for more just social ecological and political relations
