Parameters, 2017 The Films of Clint Eastwood Matt Wanat, Leonard Engel, 2018-05-15 The indefatigable Clint Eastwood the great old man of American film is still controversial after all these years Many of the critical essays in this collection focus on Eastwood's 2014 American Sniper a particularly controversial film and a devastating personal account of the horrors of war Additional essays within the collection address his films that deserve more recognition than they have received to date The chapters vary by topic and identify themes ranging from aging race and gender to uses of Western conventions and myth to the subtleties of quieter themes and stylistic choices in Eastwood's body of cinematic work As a collection these essays show that none of these themes account for Eastwood's entire vision which is multifaceted and often contradictory dramatizing complex issues in powerful character driven narratives From Me to We Jason

Griffith, 2016-08-19 With this practical book you'll learn effective ways to engage students in reading and writing by teaching them narrative nonfiction. By engaging adolescents in narrative literary or creative nonfiction they can cultivate a greater understanding of themselves, the world around them, and what it means to feel empathy for others. This book will guide you to first structure a reading unit around a narrative nonfiction text and then develop lessons and activities for students to craft their own personal essays. Topics include: Engaging your students in the reading of a nonfiction narrative with collaborative chapter notes, empathy check-ins, and a mini research paper to deepen students' understanding. Helping your students identify meaningful life events, recount their experiences creatively, and construct effective opening and closing lines for their personal essays. Encouraging your students to use dialogue outside research and a clear plot structure to make their narrative nonfiction more compelling and polished. The strategies in this book are supplemented by examples of student work and snapshots from the author's own classroom. The book also includes interviews with narrative nonfiction writers MK Asante and Johanna Bear. The appendices offer additional tips for using narrative nonfiction in English class, text and online resources for teaching narrative nonfiction, and a correlation chart between the activities in this book and the Common Core Standards. Code Names Dictionary Frederick G. Ann Ross, 2020-12-12 Shark's Breath is the 5th book in the Murder by the Sea series by Carol Ann Ross. It was supposed to be a vacation. It was supposed to be a time when they could all get away, relax, and enjoy the company of friends and the coolness of the season. But damn if E.J. didn't bring along her juju, and there was no telling where things would go now. But that was part of the intrigue and gratification of Don's job. It was all about solving and playing a game of cops and robbers, like when he was a kid. But now it was for real, with real guns, real killers. The job was kind of like women, too. When he figured them out, he was done, and all that was left was doling out justice. Set on Topsail Island, Shark's Breath takes you on a journey into the cool, fall waters north of Topsail when the area festivals are in full swing. Stroll along the sandy lanes lined with jewelry makers, wood workers, and glass blowers, peruse artisans of every ilk, and breathe in the salty air. Smell the blood in the water.
