

A black and white photograph of a coastal town, likely in the Netherlands, with a large windmill in the foreground. The windmill is a traditional Dutch-style mill with a large, circular, multi-bladed structure. Two people are standing on the platform of the windmill, looking out over the town. The town is built on a hillside, with many houses and buildings visible. In the background, the sea is visible with several ships. The overall scene is a historical view of a coastal town.
