American Sniper Last Scene:

The Hell of War Comes Home Owen W. Gilman Jr., 2018-02-09 Owen W Gilman Jr stresses the US experience of war in the twenty first century and argues that wherever and whenever there is war there will be imaginative responses to it especially the recent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Since the trauma of September 11 the experience of Americans at war has been rendered honestly and fully in a wide range of texts creative nonfiction and journalism film poetry and fiction These responses Gilman contends have packed a lot of power and measure up even to World War II s literature and film Like few other books Gilman s volume studies these new texts among them Kevin Powers s debut novel The Yellow Birds and Phil Klay s short stories Redeployment along with the films The Hurt Locker American Sniper and Billy Lynn s Long Halftime Walk For perspective Gilman also looks at some touchstones from the Vietnam War Compared to a few of the big Vietnam books and films this new material has mostly been read and watched by small audiences and generated less discussion Gilman exposes the circumstances in American culture currently preventing literature and film of our recent wars from making a significant impact He contends that Americans inclination to demand distraction limits learning from these compelling responses to war in the past decade According to Gilman where there should be clarity and depth of knowledge we instead face misunderstanding and the anguish endured by veterans betrayed by war and our lack of understanding

Memory and the Wars on Terror Jessica Gildersleeve, Richard Gehrman, 2017-10-24 This edited collection aims to respond to dominant perspectives on twenty first century war by exploring how the events of 9 11 and the subsequent Wars on Terror are represented and remembered outside of the US framework Existing critical coverage ignores the meaning of these events for people nations and cultures apparently peripheral to them but which have as shown in this collection been extraordinarily affected by the social political and cultural changes these wars have wrought Adopting a literary and cultural history approach the book asks how these events resonate and continue to show effects in the rest of the world with a particular focus on Australia and Britain It argues that such reflections on the impact of the Wars on Terror help us to understand what global conflict means in a contemporary context as well as what its representative motifs might tell us about how nations like Australia and Britain perceive and construct their remembered identities on the world stage in the twenty first century In its close examination of films novels memoir visual artworks media and minority communities in the years since 2001 this collection looks at the global impacts of these events and the ways they have shaped and continue to shape Britain and Australia s relation to the rest of the world

Edinburgh Companion to Globalgothic Rebecca Duncan, 2023-06-15 The Edinburgh Companion to Globalgothic is the most substantial exploration to date of gothic fiction in the international context Examining texts from across six continents the volume considers how gothic imagines colludes with or interrogates relationships and phenomena that are planetary in scale Accordingly chapters address gothic engagements with among others resource imperialism ongoing colonial history diasporic identity buckling economic unions the rise of the internet enthnonationalism and entangled systems of gendered racialised and ecocidal power In this way the collection moves decisively beyond the framework of globalisation to identify a range of new globalgothic approaches and modes overall demonstrating that gothic is a key though sometimes complicit register for negotiating the challenges and histories of our uneven global present We're Doomed. Now What? Roy Scranton,2018-07-17 An American Orwell for the age of Trump Roy Scranton faces the unpleasant facts of our day in 15 insightful honest essays on war climate change and violence Our moment is one of alarming and bewildering change the breakup of the post 1945 global order a multispecies mass extinction and the beginning of the end of civilization as we know it Not one of us is innocent not one of us is safe Now what We're Doomed Now What addresses the crisis that is our time through a series of brilliant moving and original essays on climate change war literature and loss from one of the most provocative and iconoclastic minds of his generation Whether writing about sailing through the melting Arctic preparing for Houston's next big storm watching Star Wars or going back to the streets of Baghdad he once patrolled as a soldier Roy Scranton handles his subjects with the same electric philosophical demotic touch that he brought to his groundbreaking New York Times essay Learning How to Die in the Anthropocene
