Being the Church in the Midst of Empire Karen L. Bloomquist,2007 Against the backdrop of a general sense of what empire entails the purpose of this book is to engage in some constructive theological reflection Empire refers to various interrelated processes of domination and their effects that are in tension with biblical visions for life in community There are countless effects and crucial ethical issues raised by empire especially in economic and political terms But it also poses deeply theological challenges because of how all encompassing empire becomes permeating how we think about ourselves and others our world our hopes and our desires This book presuppose that the publicly embodied identity or being of the church in the midst of empire is fundamentally rooted in the life of the Triune God From this Trinitarian perspective the writers develop theological responses that have the potential to counter transform and nurture long term reform of empire especially in and through communities of faith
