Perspective on Globalisation and Africa Development Olu-Olu Olufayo,2005 Beyond Fragmentation Juanita De Barros,Audra Diptee,David Vincent Trotman,2006 In this book leading scholars pull together some of the most recent research on the key themes of Caribbean history slavery the transition to freedom colonialism and decolonization Although all parts of the Caribbean experienced these phases the manner in which they did so differed significantly in part because of their distinct imperial histories Contemporary fragmentation and insularity have led to significant variations in the region's historiography The contributors examine the divergent historiographical and methodological developments in the British French Spanish and Dutch Caribbean By addressing these four linguistic areas of the Caribbean they aim to overcome the traditional differences imposed by language and in the process to explore hotly debated subjects and new directions in Caribbean scholarship African Perspective ,2002 Man & Development ,2007 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17

The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and acitvities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations Beyond Cultural Imperialism Peter Golding,Phil Harris,1997-02-18 Moving beyond notions of cultural imperialism this book furthers our understanding of the implications of global media culture and politics in the 1990s Leading scholars from a range of fields bring different perspectives to bear on the role of the state the range of culture beyond the media the contribution of international organizations and the potential for resistance and alternatives They reflect on the New World International Communications Order as delineated since the 1970s and examine its changing nature Throughout they connect analysis of the flows and forces which form the world media and communications with the fundamental themes of social science and illuminate the ways in which underlying questions Multidisciplinary Journal of Research Development ,2008 Beyond Christendom Jehu Hanciles,2008 Hanciles does yeoman work in part one synthesizing studies on the impact of globalization revealing that its outcomes will likely not be determined by the Euro American heartlands that sparked this movement Instead in parts two he shows that migration in general is having an enormous effect on shaping a new world order and in part three Mobile Faith he advances the case for the migration of Christians as carrying within it the seeds of renewal for the whole church and also the potential to reshape church state and religion and culture relations globally Beyond Law ,1998

Globalization and Autocentricity in Africa's Development in the 21st Century Kidane Mengisteab,1996 African economies are the most dependent and the most marginalized within the global system The prevailing policies that are designed to overcome the African crisis and to reverse their marginalization by integrating African economies more closely with the global economy through openness have generally exacerbated their problems by deepening their internal fragmentation This book is an attempt to contribute to the ongoing effort to develop more appropriate alternative strategies It proposes an ingenious balance between autocentric and globalist approaches to transcend the African paradox Globalization William H. Mott IV,William H. Mott,2004-05-30 This study expands the narrow economic commercial focus of the topical media and places globalization in a multidisciplinary context as a continuing process and a permanent condition that transforms human living and society Early chapters review the development of globalization as creating and diffusing knowledge expanding people's perspectives on living and continuing progress These chapters introduce globalization as an iterative human and deliberate process of creating new knowledge and using it to reinterpret the world time and man's place in both The later chapters present the major analytical perspectives of globalization political cultural and economic and a comparison of the primary carriers of globalism and barriers to globalization Drawing on classical and modern analysis as well as narrow topical journalism the work focuses each perspective on people through the human processes of creating knowledge and living together The work expands the economic perspective beyond the fashionable focus on trade and investment into the triggering and shadowing relationships between economic growth political conflict and social stress The political perspective expands international politics and law to global governance triadic dispute resolution and global civil society The cultural and antiglobal perspectives reflect the success of economic globalization in bringing people directly into the narrowly rational processes of international politics and economics The final analytical chapter collects and compares observations and develops conclusions about globalization across the several perspectives Speculation about alternative futures for globalizing humanity can constitute a coherent standard ideal or direction for policymaking or an agenda for continuing research and debate
