Nick Harkaway

Angelmaker Vintage Contemporaries:

The Blind Giant Nick Harkaway, 2012-05-15 Nick Harkaway author of Angelmaker presents a rousing and energizing look at how we can meaningfully and constructively engage with technology creating an essential handbook for anyone trying to be human in a digital age. Some say our devices will lead us to ruin isolating us from our neighbors warping communication delivering an unregulated flood of information that will destroy our humanity. Some say they will be our salvation enabling global communication and social engagement putting all the world's facts at our fingertips and erasing the barriers that divide us bringing out the best qualities of humanity. In The Blind Giant novelist and blogger Nick Harkaway takes us on a lucid insightful and personal tour of how we live our lives in our technology obsessed culture. A self-described missing link between the pre-Internet generation and the digital natives who have grown up with technology Nick is an enthusiastic guide to digital culture who weaves together examples from literature psychology neurology sociology history and his own life while exploring the hazards and joys of the human machine relationship. In the final analysis whether we meaningfully engage with the machines we have created or risk living in a world which is designed to serve computers and corporations rather than people this book is a must read for anyone concerned with our digital future. American Book Publishing

Record, 1996 Angelmaker Nick Harkaway, 2012-10-23 A rollicking romp of a spy thriller from the acclaimed author of The Gone Away World. A head spinning cliffhanger that reads a bit like Harry Potter for grownups. It would be a shame if no movie were made from this glorious piece of kaleidoscope fiction. The Wall Street Journal Joe Spork fixes clocks. He has turned his back on his father's legacy as one of London's flashiest and most powerful gangsters and aims to live a quiet life. Edie Banister retired long ago from her career as a British secret agent. She spends her days with a cantankerous old pug for company. That is until Joe repairs a particularly unusual clockwork mechanism inadvertently triggering a 1950s doomsday machine. His once quiet life is suddenly overrun by mad monks who worship John Ruskin psychopathic serial killers mad geniuses and dastardly villains. On the upside he catches the eye of bright and brassy Polly a woman with enough smarts to get anyone out of a sticky situation. In order to save the world and defeat the nefarious forces threatening it Joe must help Edie complete a mission she abandoned years ago and he must summon the courage to pick up his father's old gun and join the fight. Critical Views

Teresa R. Stojkov, 2011 This volume of the Townsend Papers in the Humanities commemorates the twenty fifth year of the Doreen B. Townsend Center for the Humanities at the University of California Berkeley. As such the volume is an attempt to capture the breadth and depth of lectures and events presented by the center. Many are revised versions of lectures and presentations organized in connection with the annual appointment of the Avenali Professor in the Humanities at Berkeley generously funded by Joan and Peter Avenali or Berkeley's Una's Lecturer endowed in the memory of Una Smith Ross. Class of 1911 several are based on other events presented by the center over the years such as the Humanities Perspectives on Aging program or the Futures lecture series organized to commemorate the center's tenth anniversary All are the reflection of a public event before a live audience We have chosen to retain references to the live event where they occur though space limitations would not permit the inclusion of audience questions Art and Artifacts 2e James Putnam,2009-10-27 The increasing trend towards collaborations between practising artists and museum curators has in some cases involved the rehanging of existing collections or redesigning of gallery spaces In this way the probing instinct of the creative mind counterbalances the sense of permanence and order associated with the museum in a constructive dialogue involving elements of the past present and future BOOK JACKET Antiques ,1964 Magazine Antiques ,1961 What Do I Read Next? ,1994 The Guardian Index ,1996 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003
