The Productions of Time Michael Dolzani,2021-02-18 Myth criticism flourished in the mid twentieth century under the powerful influence of Canadian thinker Northrop Frye It asserted the need to identify common unifying patterns in literature arts and religion Although it was eclipsed by postmodern theories that asserted difference and conflict those theories proved incapable of inspiring solidarity or guiding social action The Productions of Time argues for a return to myth criticism in order to refine and extend its vision With the aim of rehabilitating myth criticism for our time Michael Dolzani sketches an anatomy of the imagination as demonstrated in the total body of its productions including literature mythology the arts popular culture and religious and political texts Dolzani situates a vast panoply of images character types plot structures themes and genres to better understand their purposes their recurrences across broad spans of history and their interrelations Illustrating the relationship between mythology and history The Productions of Time proposes a symbolic language as a way of enabling dialogue across ideological and individual differences Arguing for the ethical and intellectual necessity of conceiving a unifying pattern that transcends differences The Productions of Time demonstrates that imagination is part of the human inheritance common to all not just to poets and mystics    Dark Romance David J.
