Anderson, 1987 The Gift I Was Given Mary Anne Ehler, 2009-05 Families of individuals with special needs often feel lost confused and alone If the person who is the caregiver is a parent of a young child newly diagnosed the parent of a young person returning from college with mental illness the parent of an adult with a disability who is trying to find their way in the world or the child of a parent who now needs care due to the aging process all have the same common fears They don t know where to start how to be a good caregiver and don t know where to begin to look for help The feeling of helplessness can be staggering Knowing you are not alone and that there are many to reach out to is a huge help The Gift I Was Given provides hope to those who have been in my shoes The Gift of Beauty and the Passion of Being William Desmond, 2018-07-06

This book gathers a set of reflections on the gift of beauty and the passion of being There is something surprising about beauty that we receive and that moves the passion of being in us The book takes issue with an ambiguous attitude to beauty among some who proclaim their advanced aesthetic authenticity Beauty seems bland and lacks the more visceral thrill of the ugly indeed the excremental We crave what disrupts and provokes us not what gives delight or even consoles By contrast attention is given to how beauty arouses enigmatic joy in us and we enjoy an elemental rapport with it as other Surprised by beauty our breath is taken away but we are more truly there with the beautiful when we are taken outside of ourselves We are first receivers of the gift of surprise and only then perceivers and conceivers My attention to the passion of being stresses a patience a receptivity to what is other What happens is not first our construction There is something given something awakening something delighting something energizing something of invitation to transcendence The theme is amplified in diverse reflections on life and its transient beauty on soul music and its relation to self on the shine on things given in creation on beauty and Schopenhauer s dark origin on creativity and the dynamis in Paul Weiss s creative ventures on redemption in Romanticism in the thought of Stanley Cavell on theater as a between or metaxu on redeeming laughter and its connection with the passion of being Unwrapping the Greatest Gift Ann Voskamp, 2014 New York Times Bestseller and ECPA Award Winner Over 150 000 copies sold Unwrap the greatest Gift with your family this Advent season With vivid full color illustrations downloadable ornaments and moving scenes from the Bible this book is a gift your whole family can
