Godonism Theo Von Cezar,2010-10-12 The story starts with friends Ahma and Jovian who like most humans have fallen on terrible luck There s nothing special about these two or humanity in general The dystopian grey world the men live in is held tightly in the grip of overpopulation People are subsisting and not much more The friends have nothing to look forward to until they happen to find the Church of All Nonbelievers What s the guiding principle of this somewhat sacrilegious institution As the book states GOD IS NOT INDEBTED TO THE UNIVERSE AND TIME WE ARE INDEBTED TO OUR GOD Enter a paranormal being who offers Ahma and Jovian the chance to rise above their meager existence The offer comes with a warning Should the two mess up the opportunity they ll bring their own ruination The story leads the friends down a winding path that is one half The Matrix and another half Heresy In the end the men find out their ties run deeper than ever thought the government s guiding hand in their lives more invasive and the lines between religion and science so completely blurred that both begin to look like futuristic psychology
