Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar,1979 Resisting Modernity Samir Dayal,2021-02-10 Samir Dayal's book Resisting Modernity is provocative. Provocative because it undoes the allures of propulsion toward modernity at the same time that it refrains from a retreat into an idyllic and elusive pre colonial past. Drawing on a wide body of postcolonial studies scholarship emanating from South Asia and on psychoanalytic theory Dayal complicates our understanding of three prominent Indian figures Ramakrishna Paramahansa Rabindranath Tagore and Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi active in the decades before independence from British colonial rule. He sees them as resisting the modernist rhetoric of sovereignty and rational nationalism prevalent in those years. Through his focus on these protagonists Dayal illuminates how their critique of the nationalist project of the pre independence years was at once strategic and limiting, inclusive and exclusionary, empowering and potentially debilitating. Rajini Srikanth University of Massachusetts Boston She is the author of The World Next Door: South Asian American Literature and the Idea of America Temple 2006 co editor of the award winning anthology Contours of the Heart: South Asians Map North America Rutgers 1996 and co editor of the collection of critical essays A Part Yet Apart: South Asians in Asian America Temple 1998. Resisting Modernity is an admirable endeavor that opens up modernity to possibilities of postcolonial subaltern re-recognition. Dayal's conjunctural readings of the gendered, affective as well as cognitive performances of Ramakrishna Tagore, Gandhi and Ambedkar are richly symptomatic of the human condition under colonial modernity. A welcome addition to the genre of the global interrogation of modernity. R Radhakrishnan Professor of English and Comparative Literature and Chair of the Department of Asian American Studies at the University of California Irvine. He is the author of Diasporic Mediations Between Home and Location Minnesota 1996 and Theory in an Uneven World Blackwell 2003

Annihilation of Caste in India Hira Singh,2025-02-25 This book offers a critical re-examination of the relationship between caste and class. Singh demystifies caste based on a comparative analysis between a Weberian and Marxian understanding of power. He rejects Max Weber's account of caste as rooted in culture which Weber saw as analytically distinct from the economic and political power. In contrast, Singh offers a Marxist analysis of caste as a matter of land, means of production and labor, social relations of production. Extending his critique of the cultural understanding of caste, Singh examines one of the most prominent accounts of caste as a religious phenomenon specific to Hinduism. The book aims to show the intrinsic interconnectedness of class and caste. Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi Indian Council of Social Science Research,1974 Classified and annotated bibliography of English books on Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi 1869-1948 published before December 1972 Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, Writings and Speeches: What Congress and Gandhi have
