Sustainable Learning Lorraine Graham, Jeanette Berman, Anne Bellert, 2015-02-12 Sustainable Learning Inclusive Practices for 21st Century Classrooms provides readers with the knowledge and skills to be confident and effective inclusive teachers. The authors show that these skills are essential to quality teaching that is evidence based, purposeful, relevant and responsive to students' needs. The book employs three overarching frameworks to examine inclusive practices in education: equity learning for all, values learning that matters, and sustainability learning that lasts. Chapter features include 'Think and do' exercises, Examples, case studies, and vignettes. Tables, figures, and diagrams help readers visualise core ideas, theories, and themes. It encourages teachers to see all students as developing learners and to consider the complexities and diversity of learning in the 21st century. In doing so, it canvasses topics such as a sustainable approach to inclusion, learning processes, teaching processes, differentiation, assessment to support teaching and learning, and life long learning. Leading and Managing Indigenous Education in the Postcolonial World Zane Ma Rhea, 2014-07-11 This book brings together the academic fields of educational leadership, educational administration, strategic change management, and Indigenous education in order to provide a critical, multi-perspective, systems level analysis of the provision of education services to Indigenous people. It draws on a range of theorists across these fields, internationally mobilising social exchange and intelligent, complex, adaptive systems theories to address the key problematic of intergenerational educational failure. Ma Rhea establishes the basis for an Indigenous rights approach to the state provision of education to Indigenous peoples that includes recognition of their distinctive economic, linguistic, and cultural rights within complex, globalized postcolonial education systems. The book problematizes the central concept of a partnership between Indigenous people and non-Indigenous school leaders, staff, and government policy makers, even as it holds this key concept at its centre. The infantilising of Indigenous communities and Indigenous people can take priority over the education of their children in the modern state; this book offers an argument for a profound rethinking of the leadership and management of Indigenous education. Leading and Managing Indigenous Education in the Postcolonial World will be of value to researchers and postgraduate students focusing on Indigenous education, as well as teachers, education administrators, and bureaucrats, sociologists of education, Indigenous education specialists, and those in international and comparative education. The Routledge International Encyclopedia of Education Gary McCulloch, David Crook, 2013-11-26 The Routledge International Encyclopedia of Education is a unique and major resource for the field of education. It is a comprehensive single volume work arranged alphabetically and comprising around 600 entries. The entries range from definitions of key educational concepts and terms to biographies of key educators and specially written, substantial essays on major educational topics. The volume includes authoritative and critical commentary on historical and contemporary themes, examinations of continuities, changes, and emerging issues, and discussions of the educational traditions and features of major countries and continents. The following special features are also included Unrivalled coverage of education in a single volume Entries by leading international educational researchers Contributors drawn from all over the globe including Australia Brazil Canada China Finland India Israel Japan New Zealand South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States A distinguished international advisory board Fully cross referenced and indexed Suggestions for further reading Offering insight into the world of education in an interesting informed and sometimes provocative way The Routledge International Encyclopedia of Education is an invaluable work of reference for educators students researchers and policy makers in education and related fields internationally

Teaching Rick Churchill, Tiffani Apps, Jantiena Batt, Karley Beckman, Peter Grainger, Jessica Holloway, Amanda Keddie, Will Letts, Jennu Mackay, Michelle McGill, Julianne Moss, Michael C. Nagel, Kylie Shaw, Jessa Rogers, 2024-10-28 The sixth edition of Teaching Making A Difference stands as a cornerstone resource for pre service educators seeking a comprehensive contemporary and accessible introduction to the field of teaching Through its meticulous attention to accuracy and relevance this text offers students the possibility to engage with the latest initiatives and governmental mandates shaping educational landscapes Local case studies woven throughout each chapter serve as illuminating exemplars of current best practices addressing the diverse cultural challenges confronting modern society With its blend of theoretical insight and practical application this textbook equips aspiring teachers with the essential knowledge and skills needed to make a meaningful impact in today's classrooms

Indigenous Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-10-11 Global interest in indigenous studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact indigenous communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of indigenous knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving Indigenous Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of indigenous peoples from around the world as well as how contemporary issues impact these indigenous communities on a local national and global scale Highlighting a range of topics such as local narratives intergenerational cultural transfer and ethnicity and identity this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields

Promising Practices in Supporting Success for Indigenous Students Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, 2017 Indigenous peoples are diverse within and across nations However the Indigenous peoples have experienced colonisation processes that have undermined Indigenous young people's access to their identity language and culture. At the same time, Indigenous children have not generally had access to the same quality of education that other children in their country have had access to. These two forces in combination have undermined the educational opportunities and outcomes of successive generations of Indigenous children and young people at times with catastrophic effect. The six Canadian provinces and territories that participated in this study along with New Zealand and Queensland Australia are actively seeking to better meet the educational needs and aspirations of Indigenous students and their families. The report seeks to identify promising strategies, policies, programmes and practices that support improved learning outcomes for Indigenous students and to build an empirical evidence base on Indigenous students in education. The study investigates four areas in Indigenous education: well-being, participation, engagement and achievement in education. These outcomes are interconnected and mutually reinforcing and each is essential for the success of every student. Connect, 2004. Kakadu Region Social Impact Study Community Action Plan. Kakadu Region Social Impact Study. Study Advisory Group, 1997. The KRSIS term of reference primary aim was to investigate the social impacts of regional development on the Aboriginal population of the Kakadu Region. The study is about all development in the region including mining, tourism and park management and about developing an action plan to manage the impacts of these developments on Aboriginal people.

K. P. Binda, 2001. This book was written by Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal academics with many years of practical educational experience in Aboriginal communities, academic, governmental and other institutional settings. Aboriginal education in Canada takes a reflective approach within a decolonization framework. The authors trace the evolution, continuing crisis and aspirations of Aboriginal education in Canada. They analyze the contradictions and challenges facing Aboriginal education as educators struggle to overcome problems and move the field towards parity with the rest of Canada. The twelve chapters explore various aspects of Aboriginal education from pre-colonial to post-modern, from early childhood to adulthood, from classroom pedagogy to community control. Aboriginal education in Canada is indispensable for those studying and working in education as well as anyone who wants to understand Aboriginal struggles for equity and justice.
