Britain's Unfulfilled Mandate for Palestine Nick Reynold, 2014-06-12 This book provides an in depth survey of Britain's Mandate in Palestine an issue crucial to understanding the continuing atmosphere of mistrust and violence in the region that continues to the present At the conclusion of the First World War 1914-18 the League of Nations awarded a Mandate to Great Britain which entailed governing a part of the defunct Ottoman Empire a part which became known as Palestine The Mandate empowering Britain to govern this area for an unspecified period had as one of its main objectives the understanding that Britain would assist the Zionist Movement in the creation of a Homeland for the Jewish people in Palestine During the thirty years that Britain ruled Palestine it made no serious effort to carry out this commitment The author discusses a variety of reasons for this failure but the greatest obstacle preventing it from fulfilling its Mandate was that Britain completely miscalculated the reaction of the large Arab majority in the country In fear of repercussions from the growing Arab nationalism various British Governments over the years decided that their best interests would be served by appeasing the Palestine Arabs and reneging on the British promise to Zionism As the author shows Britain's failure to fulfil its Mandate obligations was a major contribution to the problems that have persisted in the Middle East for decades
