Absolutely Positively Alexander:

Absolutely Positively Alexander the Complete Stories Judith Viorst, 1997-01 Absolutely, Positively Alexander Judith Viorst, 1997-10 A compilation of all three of Judith Viorst's Alexander stories Necessary Losses Judith Viorst, 2010-05-11 From grief and mourning to aging and relationships poet and Redbook contributor Judith Viorst presents a thoughtful and researched study in this examination of love loss and letting go Drawing on psychoanalysis literature and personal experience Necessary Losses is a philosophy for understanding and accepting life's inevitabilities In Necessary Losses Judith Viorst turns her considerable talents to a serious and far reaching subject how we grow and change through the losses that are a certain and necessary part of life She argues persuasively that through the loss of our mothers protection the loss of the impossible expectations we bring to relationships the loss of our younger selves and the loss of our loved ones through separation and death we gain deeper perspective true maturity and fuller wisdom about life She has written a book that is both life affirming and life changing It's Hard to Be Hip Over Thirty Judith Viorst, 2019-04-02 Bringing together some of the best of Judith Viorst's witty and perceptive poetry and featuring the illustrations from the original edition by John Alcorn Viorst explores the all too true ironies and absurdities of being a woman in the modern world Whether she's finding herself or finding a sitter contemplating her sex life as she rubs hormone night cream on her face or wrestling with the contradiction of falling in love with a man her parents would actually approve of Viorst transforms the familiar events of daily life into poems that make you laugh with recognition Here is the young single girl leaving her parents home for life in the big city No I do not believe in free love And yes I will be home for Sunday dinners Here is the aspiring bohemian with an expensive liberal arts education getting coffee and taking dictation Hoping that someday someone will be impressed With all I know Here is that married woman coping with motherhood The tricycles are cluttering my foyer The Pop Tart crumbs are sprinkled on my soul and fantasy affairs I could imagine cryptic conversations clandestine martinis and me explaining that long kisses clog my sinuses and all too real family reunions Four aunts in pain taking pills One cousin in analysis taking notes And here she is at mid life wondering whether a woman who used to wear a Ban the Bomb button can find happiness being a person with a set of fondue forks a fish poacher and a wok Every step of the way It's Hard to be Hip Over Thirty and Other Tragedies of Married Life demonstrates once and for all that no one understands American women coming of age like Judith Viorst It's Hard to be Hip Over Thirty and Other Tragedies of Married Life is a reissue of the previous collection originally titled When Did I Stop Being Twenty and Other Injustices Making the Best of What's Left Judith Viorst, 2025-04-01 From the bestselling author Judith Viorst comes a witty and poignant exploration of the joys and sorrows of life's twilight years one that leaves us laughing pondering and grateful for the moments we have left In a career that has spanned more than fifty years Judith Viorst has captivated readers with her bestselling children's books and collections of poetry reflecting on each decade of life Now in her nineties Viorst writes about life's Final Fifth those who are eighty to one hundred years old Her signature blend of humor and vulnerability infuses personal anecdotes and observations drawing you into her world of memories and candid conversations She confesses I never ever send a text while driving and not just because I don t know how to text She discusses the afterlife She doesn t believe in it but if it exists she hopes her sister in law isn t there She complains to her dead husband I need you fixing our damn circuit breakers I need you Could you please stop being dead And she explores the late life meanings of wisdom and happiness and second chances and home With a wit that defies age Viorst navigates the terrain of loss It s a poignant dance between grief and levity that will resonate with those in their Final Fifth as well as anyone who has parents relatives or friends in their eighties and beyond This is Judith Viorst at her best

Philosophy in Children's Literature Peter R. Costello, 2012-01-01 This book seeks to join the ongoing interdisciplinary approach to children s literature by means of sustained readings of individual texts by means of important works in the history of philosophy Its inclusion of authors from both various departments philosophy literature religion and education and various countries is an attempt to show how traditional boundaries between disciplines might become more permeable and how philosophy offers important insights to this interdisciplinary critical conversation The New York Times Parent's Guide to the Best Books for Children Eden Ross Lipson, 2000-11-14 The Classic Guide That Helps You Select the Books the Child You Know Will Love In this third fully revised and updated edition of The New York Times Parent s Guide to the Best Books for Children the children s book editor of The New York Times Book Review personally selects and recommends books for children of every age The most comprehensive and authoritative book of its kind has been completely updated for the new millennium It contains hundreds of new entries many expanded descriptions and notations of additional companion and related titles more than 1 700 in all The best loved classics of the twentieth century are included as well as a thoughtful selection of outstanding titles from the last decade Six sections are organized according to reading level Wordless Picture Story Early Reading Middle Reading and Young Adult In addition to a summary of the book each entry provides the essential bibliographic information you need to find a book in your local library or bookstore including title author and or illustrator hardcover and or paperback publisher and publication year major awards related titles The unique and most popular feature of the guide is its system of special indexes more than sixty in all They make it easy for parents and grandparents teachers and librarians even children themselves to match the right book to the right child Browse through the indexes and find titles for every interest and mood picture books about cats mice or dinosaurs for babies funny books to read aloud to toddlers series about family life or school or fantasy adventures for a middle grade child books on divorce or death and coming of age novels just right for someone starting junior high school There are also indexes for books about minorities and religion an age appropriate reading level index and much more Lavishly decorated with more than three hundred illustrations from representative titles the guide also features extra wide margins for notes on which of your children liked which book at what age and why Thus the guide becomes a family reading record as well as an invaluable resource you ll use
