Pluriversal Conversations on Transnational Feminisms Nina Lykke, Redi Koobak, Petra Bakos, Swati Arora, Kharnita Mohamed, 2023-10-27 This edited volume brings transnational feminisms in conversation with intersectional and decolonial approaches. The conversation is pluriversal; it voices and reflects upon a plurality of geo and corpopolitical as well as epistemic locations in specific Global South East North West contexts. The aim is to explore analytical modes that encourage transgressing methodological nationalisms which sustain unequal global power relations and which are still ingrained in the disciplinary perspectives that define much social science and humanities research. A main focus of the volume is methodological. It asks how an engagement with transnational intersectional and decolonial feminisms can stimulate border crossings. Boundaries in academic knowledge building shaped by the limitations imposed by methodological nationalisms are challenged in the book. The same applies to boundaries of conventional disembodied and ethically unaffected academic writing modes. The transgressive methodological aims are also pursued through mixing genres and shifting boundaries between academic and creative writing. Pluriversal Conversations on Transnational Feminisms is intended for broad global audiences of researchers, teachers, professionals, students from undergraduate to postgraduate levels, activists and NGOs interested in questions about decoloniality, intersectionality and transnational feminisms as well as in methodologies for boundary transgressing knowledge building.

Impressionist Paris James A. Ganz, 2010 This richly illustrated volume explores diverse aspects of life in nineteenth century Paris from the dim alleys of Old Paris to the grand boulevards of the Second Empire. Paris earned the enduring nickname la ville lumière during the second half of the nineteenth century when gas lamps gradually began to light up the city's dark medieval streets. Authors, composers and especially visual artists thrived in this dazzling milieu. Approximately one hundred prints, drawings, photographs and paintings offer an unforgettable tour of the cultural capital of the nineteenth century, the city in which Impressionism was born. Readers are transported to Paris via views of the city from panoramas to picturesque details by Pierre Bonnard, Charles Marville, Jean-François Raffaelli and Edouard Vuillard. Works by Honoré Daumier and Edouard Manet convey key historical events and underscore the newfound power of the press. Prints and drawings by Mary Cassatt, Paul Gauguin and Camille Pissarro provide an expanded view of the Impressionist movement beyond the medium of painting while Edgar Degas, Pierre-Auguste Renoir and James Tissot contribute colourful images of the theatre, the circus and other forms of popular entertainment. The book concludes with a selection of vibrant turn of the century posters by Jules Cheret, Alphonse Mucha, Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec and many more.

Landscapes of Realism Svend Erik Larsen, Steen Bille Jørgensen, Margaret R. Higdonnet, 2022-03-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism. While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience, it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity. Landscapes of Realism is a two-volume collaborative interdisciplinary investigation of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this second volume shows in its four core essays and twenty four case studies four major pathways through the landscapes of realism The psychological pathways focusing on emotion and memory the referential pathways highlighting the role of materiality the formal pathways demonstrating the dynamics of formal experiments and the geographical pathways exploring the worlding of realism through the encounters between European and non European languages from the nineteenth century to the present This volume is part of a book set which can be ordered at a special discount The Jamestown Project Karen Ordahl Kupperman,2009-06-30 Listen to a short interview with Karen Ordahl Kupperman Host Chris Gondek Producer Heron Crane Captain John Smith s 1607 voyage to Jamestown was not his first trip abroad He had traveled throughout Europe been sold as a war captive in Turkey escaped and returned to England in time to join the Virginia Company s colonizing project In Jamestown migrants merchants and soldiers who had also sailed to the distant shores of the Ottoman Empire Africa and Ireland in search of new beginnings encountered Indians who already possessed broad understanding of Europeans Experience of foreign environments and cultures had sharpened survival instincts on all sides and aroused challenging questions about human nature and its potential for transformation It is against this enlarged temporal and geographic background that Jamestown dramatically emerges in Karen Kupperman s breathtaking study Reconfiguring the national myth of Jamestown s failure she shows how the settlement s distinctly messy first decade actually represents a period of ferment in which individuals were learning how to make a colony work Despite the settlers dependence on the Chesapeake Algonquians and strained relations with their London backers they forged a tenacious colony that survived where others had failed Indeed the structures and practices that evolved through trial and error in Virginia would become the model for all successful English colonies including Plymouth Capturing England s intoxication with a wider world through ballads plays and paintings and the stark reality of Jamestown for Indians and Europeans alike through the words of its inhabitants as well as archeological and environmental evidence Kupperman re creates these formative years with astonishing detail Drama Translation and Theatre Practice Sabine Coelsch-Foisner,2004 Drama translation and theatre practice was the title of our eleventh annual conference held in 2002 in the series Salzburg Conferences on Literature and Culture Pref Catalog of Copyright Entries.
