Junior Graphic Mavis Kitcher (Mrs), 2014-04-02 Community Participation in School Management Kazuro Shibuya, 2022-09-12 Nobody denies that trust in schools is key to success in generating any educational outcomes. However, trust is often eroded resulting in conflicts, alienation and differentiation among school level stakeholders. This book analyses school based management (SBM) of education through the lens of relational trust in the context of Ghana, revealing how community participation in school management leads to educational outcomes. Conducting quantitative analysis of headteacher questionnaires from public basic schools and qualitative analysis of case study schools in the Akatsi South District of Ghana, Shibuya offers critical insights into building sustainable relationships between individual households and geographical school communities. He argues it is critical to highlight relational trust as an analytical tool to examine relationships between actors and factors in school management. The research finds that trust in schools is a two way mechanism and the mutuality of expectations and obligations among stakeholders is essential if children's learning outcomes are to improve. With its mixed methods approach this book will be a valuable resource for scholars in comparative education, those in educational development and those interested in African contexts.

War, Women and Post-conflict Empowerment Josephine Beoku-Betts, Fredline A. M'Cormack-Hale, 2022-01-13 Since the 1991-2002 civil conflict ended in Sierra Leone, the country has failed to translate the accomplishments of women's involvement in bringing the war to an end into meaningful political empowerment. This is in marked contrast to other post conflict countries which have increased the political participation of women in elected and appointed office, increased the representation of women in leadership positions and enacted constitutional reforms promoting women's rights. Written by Sierra Leonean and Africanist scholars and experts from a broad range of disciplines this unique volume analyses the historical and contextual factors influencing women s political economic and social development in the country In drawing on a diverse array of case studies from health to education refugees to international donors the contradictions successes and challenges of women s lives in a post conflict environment are revealed making this an essential book for anyone involved in women and development Socioculturally Responsive Assessment Randy E.
