readers access the text through short chapters or poems. The varying lengths of the chapters are ideal for a struggling reader giving them breaks to collect their thoughts to imagine the characters in their mind's eye and to set the scene like a frame in a movie. The structure of poetry makes the books appear less intimidating with plenty of airy white space. Moreover the depth and substance conveyed in verse is every bit as deep and real as in a Gravel Road prose novel Bisexuality in Education Maria Pallotta-Chiarolli, 2017-10-02. Although many schools and educational systems from elementary to tertiary level state that they endorse anti-homophobic policies, pedagogies and programs, there appears to be an absence of education about and affirmation of bisexuality and minimal specific attention paid to bi-phobia. Bisexuality appears to be falling into the gap between the binary of heterosexuality and homosexuality that informs anti-homophobic policies, programs and practices in schools. Initiatives such as health education, sexuality education and student welfare. These erasures and exclusions leave bisexual students, family members and educators feeling silenced and invisibilized within school communities. Also absent is attention to intersectionality or how indigeneity, gender, class, ethnicity, rurality and age interweave with bisexuality. Indeed, as much research has shown, erasure, exclusion and the absence of intersectionality have been considered major factors in bisexual young people's family members and educators in school communities experiencing worse mental, emotional, sexual and social health than their homosexual or heterosexual counterparts. This book is the first of its kind, providing an international collection of empirical research, theory and critical analysis of existing educational resources relating to bisexuality in education. Each chapter addresses three significant issues in relation to bisexuality and schooling: erasure, exclusion and the absence of intersectionality. From indigenous to rural schools, from tertiary campuses to elementary schools, from films to picture books as curriculum resources, from educational theory to the health and wellbeing of bisexual students, this book's contributors share their experiences, expertise and ongoing questions. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Bisexuality.

I'm Just Me. M.G. Higgins, 2014-01-01. Gravel Road award-winning realistic teen fiction highlights the talents of our urban street lit authors. Each book is approximately 200 pages and is written at a 3.0 reading level. Nasreen and Mia are two very different girls. But they stand out at Arondale High. And kids make assumptions about the only Muslim and the new black girl, the only African American in school. Who let you into the suburbs? Samantha asks. Everyone gawks. Nasreen has kept her head down for years. Eighteen months and she's out. She tells herself Off to college. Mia is bold. Yeah, she wishes she were somewhere else, but she's not going to take the bullying lying down. She has to live her life. Graduate. Get into a good school. The school administrators are ignorant. And worse. The bullying escalates. Both at school and online. The girls come up with a plan to fight back. To regain some dignity. To turn the tables on the bullies. Rodeo Princess M.G. Higgins, 2015-07-15. Stay out of my life. Or I'll tell. That was over three years ago. The last time I talked to Amy McNair. One of the prettiest girls in school. She's horse crazy. And an amazing barrel racer. But I'm going to win at the annual rodeo. Beat her. It's all I've got. Even my boyfriend's parents don't accept me. Mainly because of my brothers. They aren't exactly
