Life Imprisonment in Asia Dirk van Zyl Smit,Catherine Appleton,Giao Vucong,2022-11-30 Life imprisonment is the punishment most often imposed worldwide for what societies regard as the most serious offences Yet in Asia the phenomenon has never been studied systematically Life Imprisonment in Asia fills this major gap It brings together thirteen new essays on life imprisonment in key jurisdictions in the region Each chapter consolidates

what is known about the law and practice of life imprisonment in the jurisdiction and then explores aspects of the imposition or implementation of life sentences that the authors regard as particularly problematic In some instances the main issue is the imposition of life sentences by the courts and their relationship to the death penalty In others the focus is on the treatment of life sentenced prisoners In many instances the most prominent question is whether life sentenced prisoners should be released and if so according to what processes In the overview chapter the editors place the complex picture that emerges of life imprisonment in Asia in a global context and point to reforms urgently required to ensure that Asian life sentences meet international human rights standards Life Imprisonment in Asia should be read by everyone who has an interest in just punishments for serious offences not only in Asia but throughout the world It will be an invaluable tool for lawyers criminologists policy makers and penal reform advocates in the region and beyond
