The Sibyl and Her Scribes Anke Holdenried,2017-05-15 The Sibylla Tiburtina is a Latin prophecy attributed to a prophetess from classical antiquity It concludes with an account of the End of History involving the coming of the Antichrist and his battle with a Last World Emperor Approximately 100 manuscripts written between the mid 11th and the 16th centuries survive which testify to the Tiburtina's immense popularity in the medieval West as such the Tiburtina is a key text for understanding medieval apocalypticism and occupies an important place in the intellectual history of the Middle Ages However studies of the manuscripts and the history of the text have been largely neglected in comparison with other similar works so little is currently known about who copied and read the prophecy Dr Holdenried's research fills this gap. This study is based on an examination of all surviving manuscripts and includes an analysis of the textual material which accompanies the Tiburtina. A survey of titles and annotations as well as research on variant texts including several hitherto unknown Modern historiography regards the Tiburtina solely as a vehicle for expressing contemporary political concerns triggered by crises thought to herald the End of the World. This book provides a much more varied picture and offers a new approach to the Tiburtina by placing it for the first time in the context of medieval traditions which saw Sibylline prophecy as independent non-Christian evidence of Christ's life and as confirmation of His divinity. As is shown these traditions had a major impact on the reception of the Tiburtina. The book concludes with a repertory of the manuscripts together with brief outlines of individual textual traditions as represented in groups of manuscripts which will constitute a valuable reference source for other scholars.

Developing Learning Skills Through Children's Literature Mildred Laughlin, Letty S. Watt, 1986 This book suggests ideas for sharing literature that may be utilized in developing a scope and sequence of literature experiences for children in grades K-5. For primary grades K-2 the activities are primarily arranged through sharing the works of a particular author or illustrator. Through this deliberate exploration the child begins to know that person as a friend. So he is excited about new books by that same author or illustrator and discusses books on a level not often achieved if authors are approached only haphazardly. Those included represent a variety of classic and current authors and illustrators too good to miss who have made a particular contribution to literature for young people.
