Border Renaissance John Morán González, 2010-01-01 The Texas Centennial of 1936 commemorated by statewide celebrations of independence from Mexico proved to be a powerful catalyst for the formation of a distinctly Mexican American identity Confronted by a media frenzy that vilified Mexicans as the antithesis of Texan liberty Mexican Americans created literary responses that critiqued these racialized representations while forging a new bilingual bicultural community within the United States The development of a modern Tejana identity controversies surrounding bicultural nationalism and other conflictual aspects of the transformation from mexicano to Mexican American are explored in this study Capturing this fascinating aesthetic and political rebirth Border Renaissance presents innovative readings of important novels by María Elena Zamora O Shea Américo Paredes and Jovita González In addition the previously overlooked literary texts by members of the League of United Latin American Citizens LULAC are given their first detailed consideration in this compelling work of intellectual and literary history Drawing on extensive archival research in the English and Spanish languages John Morán González revisits the 1930s as a crucial decade for the vibrant Mexican American reclamation of Texas history Border Renaissance pays tribute to this vital turning point in the Mexican American struggle for civil rights

Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas Sarah J. Donovan, Kim Johnson, Anna J. Small Roseboro, Barbara Edler, Gayle Sands, 2025-09-01 Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas reimagines formative assessment by advocating for a dynamic poetic approach that delves into students meaning making processes It is a guide for teachers seeking innovative approaches to formative assessment promoting a holistic creative reflective and collaborative learning environment It challenges the limitations of traditional worksheets and quizzes urging educators to move beyond seeking restrictive answers and embrace students texts as pathways to understanding The authors put forward poetry as a vigorous tool and writing poetry as an act to foster deep learning across content areas Practical examples of acrostic poems haiku and pantoum demonstrate the adaptability of poetic forms to diverse subjects Through adaptable lesson plans that can be used across history math world languages ELA and science the book encourages intentional poetic writing to learn activities and explores how poetry might present itself as a short creative assessment tool that helps teachers see what their students know and can do while also offering them the space to make new meaning in their original poetry This book is a key resource for in service educators teaching grades 6-12

Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts Basia Sliwinska, Catherine Dormor, 2022-10-20 Transnational

Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts interrogates the politics of space expressed via womxn's artistic practices which prioritise solidarity and collaboration across borders imagining attentive geographies of difference. It considers belonging as a manifestation of processes of becoming that traverse borders and generate new spaces and forms of difference. In doing so the book aims to catalyse mutual social relations founded upon responsibility and response ability to each other. The transnational framework activates concerns around belonging at a time of intensified divisions partitioning global narratives unequal trajectories and increasing violence against bodies of the most vulnerable largely founded on Eurocentric paradigms of political economic and cultural superiority. The contributors engage in a conversation signalling transversal thinking and artmaking in order to articulate and activate in between spaces. This is to welcome co affective models of belonging that question versatile embodiments of subjectivity as both agentic and as interrelational. Organised around the triangulation of modes of belonging spatial affective and collective overarched by a transnational lens that acknowledges non hierarchical local and socially relevant genealogies against universalising politics of globalisation these essays consider afresh ways in which female agency disrupts borders and activates concerns around different forms of belonging citizenship and transnationalisms. A Blueprint for Promoting Academic and Social Competence in After-School Programs Thomas P. Gullotta, Martin Bloom, Christianne F. Gullotta, Jennifer C. Messina, 2010-06-25 School activities alone are not always sufficient to ensure children's academic progress or socio emotional development and well being. And the time when many children typically have the least adult supervision immediately after school is also the time that they are at the highest risk to act as perpetrators or become victims of antisocial behavior. Throughout A Blueprint for Promoting Academic and Social Competence in After School Programs which focuses on children in grades 1 through 6 noted experts identify the best practices of effective programs and pinpoint methods for enhancing school based skills and making them portable to home and neighborhood settings. This volume: 1 Analyzes the concepts central to effective after school programs 2 Offers developmental cognitive and social ecology perspectives on how children learn 3 Features more than 100 exercises that develop young people's capabilities for academic social moral and emotional learning. These exercises are ready to use or can be adapted to students' unique needs 4 Emphasizes young people's development as students and as productive members of society during middle to late childhood and early adolescence 5 Presents explicit theory and evidence that can be used to explain the value of after school programs for budget proposals. This important book will find an appreciative ready audience among the program directors who design after school curricula the educators who implement them the mental health and social work professionals who help staff them and the current crop of graduate students who will create the next generation of programs. Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
