Whitlark,2009-02-19 The primary focus of this book is to demonstrate how Hebrews represents in view of its historical and religious context human fidelity to God Thus the basic thesis is twofold First with regard to the divine human relationship in the ancient Mediterranean world the belief in the reciprocity rationale was one primary dynamic for establishing fidelity to a relationship and has been applied by some scholars such as David deSilva to Hebrews as the way to understand its strategy for creating perseverance A major problem with the application of this dynamic is that a common optimistic anthropological assumption is associated with the various reciprocity systems in the ancient world both Jewish and pagan This assumption is required if reciprocity is to be effective for establishing ongoing fidelity Second there was however a middle Judaic stream that can be traced from the period of the exile which held to a pessimistic anthropology This anthropological assumption crippled the perceived success of reciprocity to secure fidelity Thus the solution to God's people's inability to remain faithful was an act of God that transformed the human condition and enabled faithfulness to the relationship The argument of this book is that Hebrews with its emphasis upon the inauguration of the new covenant by Jesus high priestly ministry belongs to this latter stream of thought in understanding how fidelity is secured between God and his people Hebrews thus implicitly rejects the rationale of reciprocity for fidelity The implications of this offers a fresh perspective on the soteriology of Hebrews      12 Crucial Truths of the Christian Faith Josh McDowell,Sean McDowell,2024-01-09 Relational Apologetics for This Generation and the Next Mounting disenchantment with the Christian faith has resulted in a growing concern for the future of the church particularly as it relates to the most recent generations But as we seek to reach young unbelievers with the truth transformation and joy only Jesus can provide we must first understand it for ourselves In The 12 Crucial Truths of the Christian Faith acclaimed apologists Josh and Sean McDowell clearly and winsomely distill the essentials of a living Christian faith More than just intellectual ideas these truths are reflections of a way of life exemplified by God helping you deepen your own understanding of what you believe why you believe it and how you can align your actions with these beliefs live in right relationship with God yourself and others establish a transformative foundation of faith in the lives of generations to come Packed with examples and stories this handy reference is for Christians who want to cultivate an unshakable faith and learn how to live it out      Christian Theology After Christendom Patricia G. Kirkpatrick,Pamela R. McCarroll,2020-11-24 Christian Theology after Christendom Engaging the Thought of Douglas John Hall brings together contemporary thinkers to engage and build upon Douglas John Hall's work and to take up his challenge to reclaim a contextual and decolonizing theology of the cross as a means to speak to the realities of life and faith today With a focus on contemporary issues this edited collection critically analyzes and deconstructs the centuries old colonial triumphalism of Christian theology and the church in the West This book seeks to frame present day crises in ways that honor a deeply rooted theologia crucis that does not colonize the other It explores constructive decolonizing possibilities for Christian theology at the end of Christendom
