Active Ageing in Asia Alan Walker,Christian Aspalter,2014-12-17 East Asian societies are changing rapidly and one of the most important facets of this transformation is population the ageing of society Active ageing is one of the few concepts available today to effectively address the problems arising from a highly aged and particularly in East Asia fast ageing society offering a new social policy paradigm to redirect and innovate new social policies particularly social services social transfers social regulations and laws towards more investment in and support of the fast rising number of olderelderly citizens This book focuses on the experiences of East Asian societies where active ageing has been implemented It presents a thorough analysis of the concept of active ageing and its potential and problems of implementations in different stages of development in East Asia whilst providing theoretical clarity to and broadening the concept of active ageing Further the country focused case studies explore how to design pursue measure and evaluate social policies highlight the problems related to the implementation of the concept of active ageing in social policy and outline the practical implications of active ageing theory forin policy making Active Ageing in Asia will appeal to students and scholars of social and public policy social work gerontology and health and social administration as well as to policy makers working in the field

Health Care Systems in Developing Countries in Asia Christian Aspalter,Kenny Teguh Pribadi,Robin Gauld,2017-07-14 For the last two decades major Asian economies have successfully kept their economic growth momentum going Now as these economies are entering a new phase of economic growth more attention is being paid to their respective states of social development especially the provision and the expansion of social security and in particular health care Academic study of the development of health care in developing countries has been for the most part neglected by the literature and in depth country case studies that are directly comparable on a one to one basis have not yet been conducted in a systematic manner This book volume also proposes a new stance on health policy and the health care policy paradigm one that focuses on saving lives from premature death as well as illness accidents misery and poverty based on the normative theory of developmental social policy DSP This groundbreaking book will therefore serve as a valuable reference volume for health policy social policy and public policy experts social development experts health and development economists health sociologists social workers government administrators as well as other medical and health professionals and academics

Development and Social Policy
Christian Aspalter,Kenny Teguh Pribadi,2016-12-19 In recent years government and policymakers around the world have shifted their attention away from money oriented supply side economics to institutional economics and people oriented social and economic development Issues such as poverty reduction win win solutions and strategies in social policy and their implementation universalization and a variety of new large scale conditional cash transfers programs have become ever present in the global discussion about development and social policy This book provides win win strategies for social policies on the ground as developed and put forward by the normative theoretical paradigm of Developmental Social Policy DSP

Taking the state of the art general development theory as a starting point of reference and discussion it goes on to discuss in detail the key win win strategies that form the basis and core of the DSP paradigm It examines key related issues such as the performance of provident fund systems the performance of conditional cash transfer systems especially their elements that are based on asset and means testing universalism and extension in social security provision in the context of especially developing countries and non economically targeted social welfare benefits and services Providing fully fledged theoretical guidance paired with key social policy strategies and solutions it will be highly valuable for students and scholars of social policy development studies and Asia Pacific studies

Human Entanglement Theory Christian Aspalter,2024-07-27

This innovative book has combined the latest drive to integrate the findings and principles of quantum mechanics and quantum technology especially here quantum computing into the flamboyant world of social sciences Starting with Friedrich Nietzsche as a role model especially his Human All too Human the book explores the world of interpersonal and intrapersonal intercultural and transhistorical human communication This book uses an innovative experiential and abductive research design The philosophy inspired by Nietzsche meets new inspirations stemming from quantum mechanics and quantum computing in particular Building on derived guiding principles of fuzzy randomness parallelity and universality with communication words and feelings as the least common denominator the book arrives at the formation of a new quantum inspired theory called the Theory of Human Entanglement where entanglements are causal forces for human communication and hence human actions that either instigate and propel or inhibit and stifle human communication and thus human actions Human entanglements are diverse they are complex and accumulative in nature They operate in a multi dimensional space encompassing language usage including their hidden connotations and culturally constructed truths such as hidden notions of good and evil allowed and forbidden cultural traditions and limitations governance institutions court rulings and practices particular usages of common sense local neighborhood culture and practices socio economic and environmental forces and limitations personal situations and experiences personal thoughts feelings memories and aspirations and much more The theory may serve as starting point for greater causality focus in research design and applications across all social sciences and far beyond especially when dealing with high number or infinite number of potentially causal and causal variables as well as their aggregate forces i e probability based vector forces On top artificial intelligence applications quantum information and quantum finance applications for example may contribute to the further development of human entanglement theory and vice versa

The Age-friendly Lens Christie M. Gardiner,Eileen O'Brien Webb,2022-08-05

This book engages with the concept of age friendly environments adopting multi perspectivity to demonstrate how age friendly environments can contribute to shifting how we think feel and act toward issues of age and ageing and operate as a vehicle to improve understandings of ageism Drawing from traditionally distinct fields the text demonstrates theoretical and applied dimensions of the age friendly global agenda with several chapters discussing topics that have to date been underrepresented in age friendly scholarship including education health and justice systems The case studies encourage critical engagement with the issue of ageism in age friendly scholarship It presents a clear understanding of the inequalities challenges and opportunities of ageing and of the ways international regional national and sub national commitments in health development and human rights and are further impacted by ageing through designing implementing monitoring and evaluating policies and programmes The essays utilise a critical and interdisciplinary dialogue to enhance discussion of the age friendly environment agenda through the inclusion of age friendly perspectives in addition to its processes and destinations in an ageing society The book serves as a catalyst to stimulate research policy and public interest in the physical social and regulatory environments in which we age and the consequent impact upon health and well being It will be of interest to professors graduate students and undergraduate students in policy sociology health planning and gerontology It is also recommended reading for policy makers politicians think tanks and lobbyists who are concerned with age all age inclusiveness

Developing Age-Friendly Communities in the UK Stephen J. Page, Joanne Connell, 2022-12-23 The ageing population is a global societal issue Policymakers planners and the public third and private sectors must rethink how the built environment and services are delivered to meet the needs of a changing demographic This is the first book to systematically review the evolution development and progress of age friendly thinking in the UK with a primary focus on the real world experiences of the people leading place based initiatives The book presents the findings of the first in depth national study of age friendly programme leaders in the UK completed in 2021 and provides insights into the development of age friendly communities the formative influences from a social policy perspective the management challenges and the progress towards achieving age friendly goals Using primary interview data and narrative analysis the experiences of working with age friendly programmes in different organisational forms are explored The book promotes a greater understanding of what it means to become an age friendly community in practice how the programmes have different development pathways and what influences different outcomes Embellished with detailed narratives from practitioners informative tables and diagrams and figures throughout the book carefully gathers the voices of a diverse range of decision makers and leaders associated with the age friendly movement and provides unique insights on the drivers of change in specific localities This is a must read for anyone involved in ageing research or ageing policy and practice as it provides an insightful look into the real world of embedding this community development model in different localities to make a difference to the lives of older people Topical themes include how these agendas connect with other issues such as dementia friendly programmes and the work of the third sector as well as the growing challenge of what it means to be friendly as a community and place and whether friendly is becoming an over used term in relation to place identity The book has national and global interest for all communities engaged in age friendly activity offering exemplars of best practice achievements in transforming local communities and views on the meaning of ageing as well as the age friendly lens as an approach that champions the world through the eyes of older people It offers a thought provoking read for anyone with an interest in this expanding area of ageing irrespective of disciplinary focus Protecting the Elderly Against Abuse and Neglect Legal and Social Strategies Siti Zaharah Jamaluddin,2017 International Labour Documentation International Labour Office.
