Activist Faith Carol Ann Drogus, Hannah Stewart-Gambino, 2009-03-02 An extensive and powerful literature on religion society and politics in Latin America in recent years has begun with the assumption that most of the movements that surged in the struggle against military rule are dead that most of the activists are scattered and burned out and that the promise of civil society as a source of new values and a new kind of citizenship and political life was illusory Many have assumed that the religiously inspired activism of that period left little lasting impact but hardly anyone has actually looked at the activists themselves to see what remains how they cope in a different more open environment and how they see and act on the present and future Activist Faith addresses these issues with a wealth of empirical detail from two key cases and with a richly interdisciplinary argument that draws on theorizing about social movements The authors strive to understand what sustains activism and movements in radically different circumstances from those in which they arose Their analysis is enriched by systematic attention to the impact of gender and gender related issues on activism and movements In the process they shed much needed light on the fate of the activists and social movements that rose to prominence throughout Latin America during the 1980s This beautifully written book is a major achievement that gives us analytical tools for studying how movements and activists survive in the doldrums and when a cycle of protest peaks and societies move on Daniel H Levine University of Michigan

Stories and Reflections of Immigrant Activists in Europe Dita Vogel, 2009 This book shares the stories and reflections of 40 foreign born activists in different European states The immigrants vividly report on their paths into active participation in the societies in which they live They reflect on their own role as links and mediators between different groups as role models and door openers for newcomers and young second generation immigrants and as admonishers and advocates The stories encompass unique experiences of special persons but they also illustrate general challenges for the integration of immigrants in Europe All those who are interested in migration and integration issues should find the book interesting and inspiring reading In addition adult educators may find real life examples for their workshops and courses Careful introductions and complementary information boxes support this purpose

Victorian Social Activists' Novels Vol 3 Oliver Lovesey, 2021-03-24 The writers of these novels were involved in various types of activism using approaches ranging from conservative amelioration to radical militancy Their works employ a broad variety of genres from the novel of manners sensation education and vocation to allegory romance and lesbian fiction Volume 3 includes At Sundry Times and in Divers Manners 1891 American Women Activists' Writings Kathryn Cullen-DuPont, 2002-02-11 Through America's history women have contributed to more than their own goals of freedom and equality This anthology redefines activism beyond the strict realm of politics to embrace the many reform movements that women have galvanized and revolutionized including religious tolerance abolition civil rights wildlife conservation environmental protection and nuclear disarmament St. Antony's Activists Rob J. D. Robertson, 1999 Anglican Theological Review Samuel Alfred Browne Mercer, Leicester Crosby Lewis, 1925 A New Testament bibliography for 1914 to 1917 inclusive by Frederick C Grant v 1 p 58 91 Faith after Ferguson Leah Gunning Francis, 2021-08-17 Faith after Ferguson should be a source of comfort and inspiration on the long road ahead Foreword Reviews Leah Gunning Francis Ferguson and Faith 2015 revisits the clergy and activists from the front lines of the Ferguson MO Black Lives Matter protests to hear what they've learned in the struggle for justice and healing five years later Weaving the personal accounts of more than a dozen activists and clergy with her own experiences Francis offers profound new insights on faith filled living in response to social injustice as well as lessons for organizing and mobilizing people to effect real change Learn from the courageous and resilient leaders on the front lines for justice and discover new ways of leading in the movement for racial justice Faith in Black Power Kerry Pimblott, 2017-01-20 In 1969 nineteen year old Robert Hunt was found dead in the Cairo Illinois police station The white authorities ruled the death a suicide but many members of the African American community believed that Hunt had been murdered a sentiment that sparked rebellions and protests across the city Cairo suddenly emerged as an important battleground for black survival in America and became a focus for many civil rights groups including the NAACP The United Front a black power organization founded and led by Reverend Charles Koen also mobilized thanks in large part to the support of local Christian congregations In this vital reassessment of the impact of religion on the black power movement Kerry Pimblott presents a nuanced discussion of the ways in which black churches supported and shaped the United Front She deftly challenges conventional narratives of the de Christianization of the movement revealing that Cairoites embraced both old time religion and revolutionary thought Not only did the faithful fund the mass direct action strategies of the United Front but activists also engaged the literature on black theology invited theologians to speak at their rallies and sent potential leaders to train at seminaries Pimblott also investigates the impact of female leaders on the organization and their influence on young activists offering new perspectives on the hypermasculine image of black power Based on extensive primary research this groundbreaking book contributes to and complicates the history of the black freedom struggle in America It not only adds a new element to the study of African American religion but also illuminates the relationship between black churches and black politics during this tumultuous era Psychology, Psychotherapy and Evangelicalism John Grant McKenzie, 1940 Advocates and Activists, 1919-1941 David Garrett Izzo, 2003 Contains concise biographies of important men and women who lived between 1919 and 1941 Each entry contains bibliographical references and sources of additional information From product description Faith and Order Herbert Newell Bate, 1927 Journal of the Central Mississippi Valley American Studies Association, 1974 Forging a Real World Faith Gordon MacDonald, 1989 American Studies, 1974 Strong and Fearless Faith Jasmine Holmes, 2025-09-09 Middle grade readers will encounter 52 short biographies of unsung heroes of the Christian faith including activists pastors and missionaries Along the way kids will learn about the trials and triumphs of the Black Americans who shaped our nation's history Throughout history stories of brave Black believers and their incredible contributions to the Christian faith and our nation have gone overlooked Passionate writer and educator Jasmine L Holmes brings 52 notable Black Christians stories to life in this fun and fact filled book for middle grade readers Kids will discover the stories of Amanda Berry Smith the evangelist and orphanage founder who overcame poverty and hardship to preach the Word of God worldwide George Lisle the missionary who went from indentured servant to ordained minister Mary Ann Shadd the journalist and teacher who spoke truth to power as a fervent abolitionist and an outspoken proponent of women's voting rights Well researched and colorfully illustrated Strong and Fearless Faith will inspire young readers from all backgrounds to express their faith in bold ways Pictorial History of Nirmul Committee's Movement Kazi Mukul, 2004 Includes contributed articles on the role and activities of the Committee for Resisting Killers Collaborators of Bangladesh Liberation War of 1971 in the political events of Bangladesh after 1991 The New Humanities Reader Richard E. Miller, Kurt Spellmeyer, 2003 Designed to help students attain the analytical skills and big picture overview necessary to become informed citizens the collection contains challenging and important readings from diverse fields that address critical issues in contemporary society Ideas and research from wide ranging sources provide opportunities for students to synthesize materials and come up with their own ideas and solutions Students will be engaged by reading and rereading analyzing and working with these selections because they present powerful ideas not simply because they are models of good writing style The Worlds, with The Activists Papers Edward Bond, 1980 The worlds offers a lucid examination of the violent machinery of capitalism the politics of industrial action and the use of terrorism After a difficult week trying to deal with a strike by his organisation's employees Trench goes away for the weekend to a smart country hotel to dispense wisdom to his boardroom prot g s He is then suddenly kidnapped his captors holding him hostage until the demands of the strikers are met Meanwhile his workers shiver on the picket line trying to figure out why some men get to follow different rules And while Trench is absent his prot g s find they appreciate being in charge and the ruthlessness of the corporation turns in on itself
