The Christian life is built on three seemingly unremarkable practices reading the Bible prayer and fellowship with other believers However according to David Mathis such habits of grace are the God designed channels through which his glorious grace flows making them life giving practices for all Christians Whether it's hearing God's voice the Word having his ear prayer or participating in his body fellowship such spiritual rhythms of the Christian life have the power to awaken our souls to God's glory and stir our hearts for lifelong service in his name What's more these seemingly simple practices grant us access to a host of spiritual blessings that we can only begin to imagine this side of eternity and the incredible joy that such blessings bring to God's children today Broken Jar Jan Doke,2009-07-15 Broken Jar is for those who wish to be transformed by the Potter from a showboat into an ark of testimony for Him It is for earthen vessels who know that to be continually molded by His hands even broken and reformed if need be is the only way to keep bearing His hallmark the only way to continue glorifying the true Potter From January through December these daily devotionals anchored deeply in the Word of God ask challenging questions about growing pains and comfortable stagnation Are we allowing the Potter to do as He pleases with us the clay Do we trust Him to put pressure where it is needed to mold us to His liking or do we stiffen at and shrink from His touch When we arrive at a shape we like do we grow so proud and possessive of this present form that we disengage ourselves from the wheel to harden into an independent and finished pot to remain permanently fixed This book is for those jars who refuse to stay fixed Jan Doke is a retired high school English Bible Literature teacher She lives in Belton Texas with her husband Larry When she is not writing she enjoys studying and teaching the Bible speaking at women's retreats mentoring at a drug rehab center traveling hiking fishing cooking and playing with her five grandchildren She has been published in Christian Woman magazine and is currently working on her first novel Out of the Chute in Azalea Heights
