

Sample Test Booklet and Answer Document

1. Sample answer documents include an answer key and the instructions for marking the sample test pages as follows:

First, sample questions from English, Mathematics, Reading, and Science. These sample questions include some additional testing material to help demonstrate how you should mark answers. (These additional items are listed on the corresponding sample page.)

The questions (as well as the instructions) and the suggested answers for each question are included on the answer document. The first answers are numbered to match the questions, and the rest of each row are listed in alphabetical order by suggestion.

For each question, five choices are listed across at least four rows on the answer document. The first row is numbered the same as the question. There is also one row to help you indicate the correct answer between letters J, K, L, M, and N. (There are also rows to help you indicate your mathematical work, and rows to help you indicate answers.)

Again, only one answer is correct. If you change your mind about which answer is correct, make sure that your bubble markings clearly indicate your answer. For each question, make certain that you mark in the row of bubbles with the letter number of the question.

Only one answer marked correct answer (bubble) will be scored. Your answer on each row will be scored only if the letter of your answer is marked correctly. Marking the same answer for three rows, for example, will not be scored. If you mark "J" for question 1, "K" for question 2, "L" for question 3, "M" for question 4, and "N" for question 5, only the "J" will be scored.

Remember that on each row, the "J," "K," "L," "M," and "N" bubbles are only to be marked if you choose a response. There is no bubble for "J," "K," "L," "M," and "N" if you choose not to answer. (Remember that you can choose not to answer any question on the test.) The "J," "K," "L," "M," and "N" bubbles are only to be marked if you choose a response. There is no bubble for "J," "K," "L," "M," and "N" if you choose not to answer. (Remember that you can choose not to answer any question on the test.)

Each row is numbered to help you indicate your answer. The first row is numbered the same as the question. The rest of each row are listed in alphabetical order by suggestion. The first row is numbered the same as the question. The rest of each row are listed in alphabetical order by suggestion.

DO NOT write on the pages of your test booklet.
