

1. Choose the best answer.

CORRECT RESPONSE: A

The best answer is A. It provides the best punctuation for the underlined portion. The phrase "waiting by the back door" describes the noun nets and is essential because it tells which nets the narrator "grew up with." Therefore, no comma should be placed after nets. The semicolon after the word door is appropriate because semicolons are used between items in a series when one or more of these items include commas.

2. Choose the best answer.

CORRECT RESPONSE: A

The best answer is G. The verb form sitting is best here because it creates a parallel structure for all three items in the series: "nets waiting," "hip-waders hanging," "a microscope sitting."

3. Choose the best answer.

CORRECT RESPONSE: A

The best answer is D. It offers the clearest, most concise wording for this sentence. "My mother is a marine biologist" is a clear statement that avoids unnecessary or confusing words.

4. Which choice would most effectively introduce the rest of this paragraph?

CORRECT RESPONSE: A

The best answer is G. This is a good introductory sentence because the rest of the paragraph explains how the narrator's household "didn't run according to a typical schedule." The paragraph goes on to say that "meals weren't always served in the expected order" and that the mother operated according to the tides, which were not on a typical household schedule.

5. Choose the best answer.

CORRECT RESPONSE: A

The best answer is C. It offers the clearest, most concise wording for this sentence. "Everything depended on the tides," is a precise, clear statement that avoids unnecessary or confusing words.
