They Don't Tell the Truth About the Wind makes children's first attempts at scientific exploration both rewarding and relevant. The units describe classroom techniques for discovering what ideas, experiences, and questions children already have about scientific concepts and build from there. They are designed to help children make sense of their experience, create meaning, and take effective action in their worlds. The units encompass a variety of strategies for teaching, learning, and classroom management, including small group work, whole class discussions, family involvement, role plays, and puppet plays. Use of text, equipment, excursions, brainstorming, problem solving, demonstration, and film. This variety meets the range of children's learning styles and addresses the different topics that are typically covered. Plus, every unit in the book addresses ideas and skills from the strands recommended in Science A Curriculum Profile for Australian Schools.

Activity-based Intervention Guide Marcia Cain Coling, Judith Nealer Garrett, 1995. An activity-based intervention programme for children from birth to the age of five with or without disabilities. This manual allows the user to gain insight into effectively building and maintaining early intervention teams and how to include families in the intervention programme. Chapters cover family-centred services, team building, adapting activities for mixed age/ability groups, incorporating technology into activity-based intervention, adapting activities for children with physical challenges.

Everyday Mathematics, 2004. Contains easy-to-follow three-part daily lesson plans. This assists teachers in focusing on lesson objectives, providing ongoing practice for all students, and addressing individual student needs for a variety of populations. A unit organizer provides learning goals, planning, and assessment support. Content highlights a materials chart, suggestions for problem solving, cross-curricular links, and options for individualizing. Each guide is grade level specific.

The Giant Encyclopedia of Circle Time and Group Activities for Children 3 to 6 Kathy Charner, 1996. Contains more than six hundred circle time and group activities designed by teachers to use with children three to six years old, each including a suggested age, a list of materials, and step-by-step directions and features. Lists of related books, songs, and poems.

A to Zoo Carolyn W. Lima, John A. Lima, 1989. A guide to 12,000 titles cataloged under 700 subjects and indexed by author, title, and illustrator.

The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp, 1998. Lists all the resources needed to create a balanced curriculum for homeschooling from preschool to high school level.
