Revised Updated Text Samantha Rinne Hooker, 2019-01-11 This is a book concerning a syncretic religion and it also teaches comparative religion to some extent.

Literature Unit Caroline Jackson, 2003 This Literature unit has been designed to supplement teachers with ideas for use with Deltora Quest The Lake of Tears by Emily Rodda. The lessons in this unit cover getting to know the author and the book and suggestions for using the unit activities before, during and after the book. The variety of worksheets are packed with fun quizzes and exercises that will enhance a student's literacy and develop their vocabulary skills.

Literacy for Digital Futures Kathy A. Mills, Len Unsworth, Laura Scholes, 2022-09-30 The unprecedented rate of global technological and societal change calls for a radical new understanding of literacy. This book offers a nuanced framework for making sense of literacy by addressing knowledge as contextualised, embodied, multimodal and digitally mediated. In today's world of technological breakthroughs, social shifts and rapid changes to the educational landscape, literacy can no longer be understood through established curriculum and static text structures. To prepare teachers, scholars and researchers for the digital future, the book is organised around three themes: Mind and Materiality, Body and Senses and Texts and Digital Semiotics to shape readers' understanding of literacy. Opening up new interdisciplinary themes, Mills, Unsworth and Scholes confront emerging issues for next generation digital literacy practices.

The volume helps new and established researchers rethink dynamic changes in the materiality of texts and their implications for the mind and body and features recommendations for educational and professional practice.

Boys, Masculinities and Reading Laura Scholes, 2017-09-01 Boys, Masculinities and Reading explores elementary students' interpretations of their experiences of reading and the contextual influences that impact those experiences. While research continues to highlight the apparent systematic underperformance of boys in comparison to girls on national and international reading benchmarks, this text moves beyond broad generalizations to consider complexities inherent in notions of masculinity and associated tensions.

Applying a socio-cultural perspective, Scholes highlights the voices of boys and girls by focusing on their reading experiences. Examining the perceived generalized crisis of boys' underperformance in reading and literacy, Scholes identifies the factors that shape perceptions of masculinity among different groups of boys across the globe.
