Women's Lives/Women's Times Trev Lynn Broughton,Linda Anderson,1997-05-23 Women s Lives Women s Times reflects the growing interest in life writing as a basis for both feminist theorizing and women centered education It discusses the many ways in which the study of autobiography can contribute to the theory practice and politics of women s studies as curriculum and to feminist theory more generally This volume is concerned with the application of theory to text particularly with the assumptions and discourses of postmodernism but also in exploring how general theories of the subject do not always fit comfortably with the specifics of autobiographical writing It also recognizes the challenge women s autobiography offers to theory taking us in its complex weave of the personal the political and the theoretical beyond the usual generic and disciplinary boundaries

Sensibilities of the Islamic Mediterranean Robin Ostle,2008-07-30 From the mountains of Lebanon to the shores of Turkey and North Africa the Islamic Mediterranean has always been a dynamic cultural hub where the stories and passions of East and West collide In a sweeping survey spanning the first Arabic edition of the Thousand and One Nights to the novels of the 20th century Robin Ostle pours through centuries of books art and architecture to reveal what they tell us about the changing relationship between individual and society in this distinctive culture In pre modern literature individuality was expressed through a series of comic subversions which through their resolution ultimately strengthened the social status quo The great 19th century travelogues represented a more transgressive exploration of the boundaries of the self This theme was continued in the cultural forms of the 20th century with their emphasis on self expression and emotional liberation something increasingly defined in opposition to the state Sensibilities of the Islamic Mediterranean unravels the emotions ideas and power relationships which make up the cultural fabric of this fascinating region
