A Fool's Errand Albion W. Tourgée, 1902. Story of the reconstruction period. Congressional Record USA Congress, 1874. The Moon Upstairs Edward Winterhalder, Marc Teatum, 2012-12-01. After serving ten years in prison for manslaughter, former Skuldmén motorcycle club president Landon Blues McKendry is released on parole. Instead of using violence to make his mark in the world, he is now armed with a university degree in architecture and a new guiding light: Buddhist philosophy. The biker is on a mission to reunite with his fourteen-year-old daughter, Justine, the only surviving member of his family, but a restraining order and condition of parole prohibits Blues from seeing her. The restraining order, put in place by the maternal grandparents who have raised the girl since the death of her mother and brother, mandates that Blues will return to jail if he contacts the teenager. Appearing to lead an exemplary lifestyle, Blues has hardly become a model citizen. As he tries to rebuild his life, he crosses paths with bikers who have anything but his best interest at heart. The biker breaks parole by contacting his daughter and learns in the process that she harbors a deep hatred for him as he begins the long, hard journey to reconnect with the only family he has left.
