Strong,2016-06-22 Excerpt from All the Year Round Vol 1 A Nature Reader But the brave little girls did not give up though they often had to sit down to rest They watched the fish in the brook and the Squirrels and the birds They wished that there were owers to pick on the bare sides of the hill After a while it grew very dark but then the kind moon came out to Show them the way At last they reached the top of the hill and there at the gate stood the little old lady looking more cross than ever The little girls were very much frightened and stayed Close together Finally one of them said Please we thought you could tell us something to do to make every one happy But we want always to stay together and we are very tired Then the people say that the cross old lady was seen to smile in the moonlight as She opened the gate for the Children The two little girls were never seen again at the foot of the hill But the next morning all over the hillside the people saw growing beauti ful waving golden rod and purple asters And I have heard it said that these two bright owers which always grow together could tell the secret if they would of what became of the two little girls on that moonlight summer night About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works All the Year Round M.
