Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read. It explores a great variety of works, genres, and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes, protagonists, and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers. It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they're reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs. In addition to traditional genre chapters, Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction, poetry, short stories, and drama, cover art, picture books, illustrated literature, and graphic novels and film. It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature, they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with. The book's discussion of literary language, including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms, enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books. It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading.

Three Good Deeds Vivian Vande Velde, 2007-10-01 If Howard had known the old hag was a witch, he never would have taunted her. But he did, and she did what witches do: cursed him, and now he's a goose. Howard is desperate to become a human again. But the only way to break the curse is to do three good deeds. How can you help others when you've got webbed feet, wings for hands, and can't say anything but honk? Perfect for Halloween reading. Features light scares. A charming, cozy seasonal pick.

Remembering Raquel Vivian Vande Velde, 2007-11-01 Fifteen-year-old Raquel Falcone is as one of her classmates puts it, the kind of kid who has a tendency to be invisible. That is, until the night she's hit by a car and killed while walking home from the movies. In brief, moving chapters, we hear about Raquel from her classmates, her best friend, her family, and the woman who was driving the car that struck her. The loss of this seemingly invisible girl deeply affects her entire community, proving just how interconnected and similar we all really are.

Smart Dog Vivian Vande Velde, 2007-10-01 Fifth grader Amy Prochenko is wildly unpopular. Then one day Amy meets Sherlock, a dog on the run from a university lab. Sherlock is not like other dogs. He can talk; he's smarter than most of Amy's classmates, and he needs Amy's help. Suddenly, Amy's life is full of danger and excitement, and she finds she is becoming all things popular. Best of all, she discovers in Sherlock the sort of friend she's always longed for and one she must protect, no matter what the cost.
