All in a Day's Work ,2000 Caterpillar Times ,1915 The Caterpillar Times ,1916 Tractor Wars Neil

Dahlstrom,2022-01-11 Mr Dahlstrom has written a superb history of the tractor and this long forgotten period of capitalism in U S agriculture We now know the whole story of when farming business and the free market economy diverged divided and conquered Wall Street Journal Discover the untold story of the tractor wars the twenty year period that introduced power farming the most fundamental change in world agriculture in hundreds of years Before John Deere Ford and International Harvester became icons of American business they were competitors in a forgotten battle for the farm From 1908 1928 against the backdrop of a world war and economic depression these brands were engaged in a race to introduce the tractor and revolutionize farming By the turn of the twentieth century four million people had left rural America and moved to cities leaving the nation s farms shorthanded for the work of plowing planting cultivating harvesting and threshing That s why the introduction of the tractor is an innovation story as essential as man s landing on the moon or the advent of the internet after all with the tractor a shrinking farm population could still feed a growing world But getting the tractor from the boardroom to the drafting table then from factory and the farm was a technological and competitive battle that until now has never been fully told A researcher historian and writer Neil Dahlstrom has spent decades in the corporate archives at John Deere In Tractor Wars Dahlstrom offers an insider s view of a story that entwines a myriad of brands and characters stakes and plots the Reverend Daniel Hartsough a pastor turned tractor designer Alexander Legge the eventual president of International Harvester a former cowboy who took on Henry Ford William Butterworth and the oft at odds leadership team at John Deere that partnered with the enigmatic Ford but planned for his ultimate failure With all the bitterness and drama of the race between Ford Dodge and General Motors Tractor Wars is the untold story of industry stalwarts and disruptors inventors and administrators racing to invent modern agriculture a power farming revolution that would usher in a whole new world

Bulldozer Francesca Russello Ammon,2016-01-01 The first history of the bulldozer and its transformation from military weapon to essential tool for creating the post World War II American landscape Although the decades following World War II stand out as an era of rapid growth and construction in the United States those years were equally significant for large scale destruction In order to clear space for new suburban tract housing an ambitious system of interstate highways and extensive urban renewal wrecking companies demolished buildings while earthmoving contractors leveled land at an unprecedented pace and scale In this pioneering history Francesca Russello Ammon explores how postwar America came to equate this destruction with progress The bulldozer functioned as both the means and the metaphor for this work As the machine transformed from a wartime weapon into an instrument of postwar planning it helped realize a landscape altering culture of clearance In the hands of the military planners politicians engineers construction workers and even children s book authors the bulldozer became an American icon Yet social and environmental injustices emerged as clearance projects continued unabated This awareness spurred environmental preservationist and citizen participation efforts that have helped to slow though not entirely stop the momentum of the postwar bulldozer All in a Day's Work Gilbert C. Nolde,2000-09 All in a Day's Work tells the story of how Caterpillar grew from its modest California beginnings to become a 20 billion global powerhouse This book covers the products people and events that worked together to shape this company A gorgeous coffee table book this official 75th anniversary commemorative tells the CAT story through stunning full color design and contemporary and archival photography The New Industrial Revolution Peter Marsh,2012-07-17 The rapid emergence of China and India as prime locations for low cost manufacturing has led some analysts to conclude that manufacturers in the old economies the U S U K Germany and Japan are being edged out of a profitable future But if countries that historically have been at the forefront of events in manufacturing can adapt adroitly opportunities are by no means over says the author of this timely book Peter Marsh explores 250 years in the history of manufacturing then examines the characteristics of the industrial revolution that is taking place right now The driving forces that influence what types of goods are made and who makes them are little understood Marsh observes He discusses the key changes in what is happening in manufacturing today including advances in technology a greater focus on tailor made goods aimed at specific individuals and industry users participation of many more countries in world manufacturing and the growing importance of sustainable forms of production With broad historical sweep and dozens of engaging examples Marsh explains these changes and their import both for consumers making purchase choices and for manufacturers assessing how to participate successfully in the new industrial era
