All Souls Javier Marías, 2013-04-23 From one of the most important voices in world literature and the award winning author of The Infatuations a darkly comic campus novel and love story about that most British of institutions Oxford University Javier Marías is in my opinion one of the best contemporary writers J M Coetzee Nobel Prize winning author of Disgrace In All Souls a visiting Spanish lecturer viewing Oxford through a prismatic detachment is alternately amused puzzled delighted and disgusted by its vagaries of human vanity A bit lonely not always able to see his charming but very married mistress he casts about for activity he barely has to teach Yet so much goes into simply being at Oxford friendship opinion mongering one upmanship finicky exchanges of favors gossip adultery book collecting back patting backstabbing Marías demonstrates a sweet tooth for eccentricity in this novel from one of the best contemporary writers J M Coetzee winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature

All Souls' Rising Madison Smartt Bell, 2008-09-30 A serious historical novel that reads like a dream The Washington Post Book World One of the most sophisticated fictional treatments of the enduring themes of class color and freedom San Francisco Chronicle NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FINALIST PEN FAULKNER AWARD FINALIST This first installment of the epic Haitian trilogy brings to life a decisive moment in the history of race class and colonialism The slave uprising in Haiti was a momentous contribution to the tide of revolution that swept over the Western world at the end of the 1700s A brutal rebellion that strove to overturn a vicious system of slavery the uprising successfully transformed Haiti from a European colony to the world's first Black republic From the center of this horrific maelstrom the heroic figure of Toussaint Louverture a loyal literate slave and both a devout Catholic and Vodouisant emerges as the man who will take the merciless fires of violence and vengeance and forge a revolutionary war fueled by liberty and equality Bell assembles a kaleidoscopic portrait of this seminal movement through a tableau of characters that encompass black white male female rich poor free and enslaved Pulsing with brilliant detail All Souls' Rising provides a visceral sense of the pain terror confusion and triumph of revolution

The American Biographical Novel Michael Lackey, 2016-04-07 Before the 1970s there were only a few acclaimed biographical novels But starting in the 1980s there was a veritable explosion of this genre of fiction leading to the publication of spectacular biographical novels about figures as varied as Abraham Lincoln Ludwig Wittgenstein Friedrich Nietzsche Emily Dickinson Virginia Woolf Henry James and Marilyn Monroe just to mention a notable few This publication frenzy culminated in 1999 when two biographical novels Michael Cunningham's The Hours and Russell Banks' Cloudsplitter were nominated for the Pulitzer Prize and Cunningham's novel won the award In The American Biographical Novel Michael Lackey charts the shifts in intellectual history that made the biographical novel acceptable to the literary establishment and popular with the general reading public More specifically Lackey clarifies the origin and evolution of this genre of fiction specifies the kind of truth it communicates provides a framework for identifying how this genre uniquely engages the political and demonstrates how it gives readers new access to history

Truthful Fictions: Conversations with

American Biographical Novelists Michael Lackey,2014-02-27 In this new collection of interviews some of America s most prominent novelists identify the key intellectual developments that led to the rise of the contemporary biographical novel discuss the kind of historical truth this novel communicates indicate why this narrative form is superior to the traditional historical novel and reflect on the ideas and characters central to their individual works These interviews do more than just define an innovative genre of contemporary fiction They provide a precise way of understanding the complicated relationship and pregnant tensions between contextualized thinking and historical representation interdisciplinary studies and truth production and fictional reality and factual constructions By focusing on classical and contemporary debates regarding the nature of the historical novel this volume charts the forces that gave birth to a new incarnation of this genre

The International Studio ,1925 Field Study Rachel Seiffert,2007-12-18 Rachel Seiffert author of The Dark Room powerfully evokes our need for human connection in this dazzling and haunting group of stories Set against immense political upheaval or evoking the intimate struggles between men and women parents and children this astonishing collection charts our desire for love our fragility and our strength From the title piece in which a young biologist conceals his discoveries at a polluted river from a local woman to the family aided by an enemy in The Crossing to the old man weighing his regrets in Francis John Jones 1924 Seiffert s acclaimed refined prose movingly captures the lives of her characters in their most essential secret moments

Scholars of Contract Law James Goudkamp,Donal Nolan,2022-12-01 This book provides a counter balance to the traditional focus on judicial decisions by exploring the contribution of legal scholars to the development of private law In the book the work of a selection of leading scholars of contract law from across the common law world ranging from Sir Jeffrey Gilbert 1674 1726 to Professor Brian Coote 1929 2019 is addressed by legal historians and current scholars in the field The focus is on the nature of the work produced by the scholars in question important influences on their work and the impact which that work in turn had on thinking about contract law The book also includes an introductory chapter and an afterword by Professor William Twining that explore connections between the scholars and recurrent themes The process of subjecting contract law scholarship to sustained analysis provides new insights into the intellectual development of contract law and reveals the central role played by scholars in that process And by focusing attention on the work of influential contract scholars the book serves to emphasise the importance of legal scholarship to the development of the common law more generally

Psychoanalytic Reflections on Politics Eszter Salgó,2013-11-07 Psychoanalytic Reflections on Politics Fatherlands in mothers hands is a playful exploration of how people s desires fantasies and emotions shape political events and social phenomena It highlights the mythical sources of today s political projects the power of political imagination and the function of symbolism in political thought Eszter Salg argues that the driving force for the formation of political communities is fantasy illusions in a Winnicottian sense phantasies in a Lacanian sense phantoms as described by Nicolas Abraham and Maria Torok and dreams as interpreted by S ndor Ferenczi She introduces the metaphor of the fantastic family as a symbolic representation of political communities both to reflect on people's deeply felt desire to find in public life the resolution love and wholeness of early childhood and to unveil the political elite's readiness to don the mask of the ideal parent. The book is divided into two parts. The first part of the book explores the theories of Donald Winnicott and Jacques Lacan, the matrimony on the stage of politics between the good enough mother and the Symbolic Father which inaugurates the story of democracy's fantastic family. The second part presents the fantastic families of selected countries such as Hungary, Italy and the world community to explain the proliferation of cosmogony projects and to document the failure of the political elites to offer a satisfactory performance of their maternal and paternal functions. Psychoanalytic Reflections on Politics Fatherlands in mothers' hands presents a new way of considering the art of politics based on the understanding that people perceive reality through imagination and unconscious fantasy. It will be of interest to psychoanalysts and academics from across the disciplines of politics, psychology, anthropology, sociology, philosophy, literature and art.

The Sketch Book Magazine, 1930 All Souls Javier Mariás, 2013-04-23

From one of the most important voices in world literature and the award-winning author of The Infatuations, a darkly comic campus novel and love story about that most British of institutions, Oxford University. Javier Marías is, in my opinion, one of the best contemporary writers. J. M. Coetzee, Nobel Prize-winning author of Disgrace. In All Souls, a visiting Spanish lecturer viewing Oxford through a prismatic detachment, is alternately amused, puzzled, delighted and disgusted by its vagaries of human vanity. A bit lonely, not always able to see his charming but very married mistress, he casts about for activity he barely has to teach. Yet so much goes into simply being at Oxford: friendship, opinion mongering, one-upmanship, finicky exchanges of favors, gossip, adultery, book collecting, back-patting, backstabbing. Marías demonstrates a sweet tooth for eccentricity in this novel from one of the best contemporary writers, J. M. Coetzee, winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature.
