The Long Trail Meryl Macdonald, 1999 So what made Kipling tick His Celtic roots his early Indian childhood or a clash between both cultures This unusual non literary biography discloses the man behind the name and its received image reveals why he wrote so compellingly about the sea and ships had a love affair with steam and motive power becoming a pioneer motorist at the turn of the century From the passenger seat he never drove himself he discovered England the most wonderful of all foreign countries But it was on a hired bicycle he discovered the great grey green greasy Limpopo River Unlike the average globe trotter he was often a prey to melancholy of longing for his previous home across the sea for North Devon when he was in India for India when he was in London living near the Thames and for America when he was back in England after four of the happiest years of his life in Vermont The Welsh have a word for it hiraeth It is an overwhelming yearning tinged with melancholy that is entirely Celtic and not always understood by the more phlegmatic Anglo Saxon It often overcame Kipling when he was within sight or sound of water and it acted on his imagination like a spark in a combustion chamber A subversive pamphleteer turned Special Correspondent in India Rudyard Kipling put the Tommy on the map for all time before taking up with the Senior Service and playing at being a sailor on manoeuvres with the Channel Squadron and speed trials of a new destroyer A childhood ambition to join the navy had been thwarted by his myopia Indisputably his prophetic eye saw what others could not would not perhaps He prophesied the advent of two world wars years before they broke out In World War One he was an official war reporter In France and Italy and in the North Sea Kipling learned enough of the horrors of war to know the odds against his son s return when John was reported missing at Loos God, His Prophets and His Children M.
