Veils, Turbans, and Islamic Reform in Northern Nigeria Elisha P. Renne,2018-10-16 Veils Turbans and Islamic Reform in Northern Nigeria tells the story of Islamic reform from the perspective of dress textile production trade and pilgrimage over the past 200 years As Islamic reformers have sought to address societal problems such as poverty inequality ignorance unemployment extravagance and corruption they have used textiles as a means to express their religious positions on these concerns Home first to the early indigo trade and later to a thriving textile industry northern Nigeria has been a center for Islamic practice as well as a place where everything from women's hijabs to turbans buttons zippers short pants and military uniforms offers a statement on Islam Elisha P Renne argues that awareness of material distinctions religious ideology and the political and economic contexts from which successive Islamic reform groups have emerged is important for understanding how people in northern Nigeria continue to seek a proper Islamic way of being in the world and how they imagine their futures spiritually economically politically and environmentally
