MUST PAY ALIMONY OR GO TO PRISON

Woodstock, Nov. 13.—When Charles Sites, from that section of Shenandoah County between New Market and Luray, took Lillie Sites for his lawful wife, he did not dream that there was a jail sentence concealed in the parson's certificate, that the twain had been made one, and that Charles was to care for his conjugal partner "until death do us part."

A series of decrees of the Circuit Court of Shenandoah County unfolds the marital mirage, and is one of the few ever entered locally in similar cases, says the Shenandoah Herald.

Sites' legal troubles started on January 21, 1926, when he was ordered by the Court to pay his wife ten dollars a month, and counsel fees. Wilfully or unwittingly he defied the Court's mandate, and was ordered to appear at the bar of justice on May 17 to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of Court.

Still disobedient to the orders of the judge, on May 19 an order was entered requiring him to pay the specified amounts within ten days or go to jail for fifteen days, or until the amounts were forthcoming.

Sites evidently forgot that there was a court in Shenandoah County, for on Tuesday an additional order was entered directing the sheriff to arrest the recreant husband, and hold him in jail until the money was paid.

Sites' home is in the mountainous section on the Lee Highway, and 't is possible that the court's orders have never percolated into his territory. Whatever his excuse under the decrees entered he is facing a jail term or a liquidation of Mrs. Lillie's claim upon him.
