Communion bell hooks, 2021-10-12 When truth teller and careful writer bell hooks offers a book I like to be standing at the bookshop when it opens Maya Angelou Renowned visionary bell hooks explored the meaning of love in American culture with the critically acclaimed bestseller All About Love New Visions She continued her national dialogue with the bestselling Salvation Black People and Love Now hooks culminates her triumphant trilogy of love with Communion The Female Search for Love Intimate revealing provocative Communion challenges every woman to courageously claim the search for love as the heroic journey we must all choose to be truly free In her trademark commanding and lucid language hooks explores the ways ideas about women and love were changed by the feminist movement by women's full participation in the workforce and by the culture of self help and reveals how women of all ages can bring love into every aspect of their lives for all the years of their lives Communion is the heart to heart talk every woman mother daughter friend and lover needs to have Love and Space in Contemporary African Diasporic Women's Writing Jennifer Leetsch, 2021-07-16 This book sets out to investigate how contemporary African diasporic women writers respond to the imbalances pressures and crises of twenty first century globalization by querying the boundaries between two separate conceptual domains love and space The study breaks new ground by systematically bringing together critical love studies with research into the cultures of migration diaspora and refuge Examining a notable tendency among current black feminist writers poets and performers to insist on the affective dimension of world making the book ponders strategies of reconfiguring postcolonial discourses Indeed the analyses of literary works and intermedia performances by Chimamanda Adichie Zadie Smith Helen Oyeyemi Shailja Patel and Warsan Shire reveal an urge of moving beyond a familiar insistence on processes of alienation or rupture and towards a new reparative emphasis on connection and intimacy to imagine possible inhabitable worlds The Foundations of the Aarhus Convention Emily Barritt, 2020-10-29 This important new monograph offers an innovative new analysis of the Aarhus Convention Environmental law is dense with monolithic concepts from environmental democracy to intergenerational justice from sustainable development to stewardship Each concept generates its own mythology about what environmental law should aspire to Sometimes these ideas become so big that we lose hold of their meaning and therefore what we allude to when we describe environmental law in such terms No more so is this true than in relation to the Aarhus Convention an ambitious instrument of environmental law that promotes public participation and access to justice in relation to the environment Since its inception it has been revered in glowing terms and praised variously for its contribution to citizenship environmental responsibility and democratic legitimacy But how are we to know whether these descriptions are mere puffs or genuine statements about the Convention's character This book digs deep into the foundations of the Aarhus Convention examining its ambitious potential through the lens of three foundational purposes environmental rights democracy and stewardship In so doing it contributes to our understanding both of the Convention and our understanding of three important purposes that inhabit environmental law unravelling and reassembling them to build meaning into our broad brush descriptions Essays on Music, Politics and Resistance Helen Lawlor, Adrian Scahill, 2025-08-11 This volume explores the relationship between music power and politics examining how music serves as a tool for empowerment resistance and alternative worldviews The essays highlight how music can help minority groups establish a voice fostering community and identity Drawing on recent fieldwork and ethnographic research the book features international perspectives from ethnomusicology and engages with contemporary discussions on music s role in shaping social and political realities By focusing on music s potential for empowerment and social justice the volume goes beyond viewing music merely as a form of protest offering a broader perspective on its transformative power for marginalized communities Music in Black American Life, 1945-2020 , 2022-08-23 This second volume of Music in Black American Life offers research and analysis that originally appeared in the journals American Music and Black Music Research Journal and in two book series published by the University of Illinois Press Music in American Life and African American Music in Global Perspective In this collection a group of predominately Black scholars explores a variety of topics with works that pioneered new methodologies and modes of inquiry for hearing and studying Black music These extracts and articles examine the World War II jazz scene look at female artists like gospel star Shirley Caesar and jazz musician arranger Melba Liston illuminate the South Bronx milieu that folded many forms of black expressive culture into rap and explain Hamilton s massive success as part of the tanning of American culture that began when Black music entered the mainstream Part sourcebook and part survey of historic music scholarship Music in Black American Life 1945 2020 collects groundbreaking work that redefines our view of Black music and its place in American music history Contributors Nelson George Wayne Everett Goins Claudrena N Harold Eileen M Hayes Loren Kajikawa Robin D G Kelley Tammy L Kernodle Cheryl L Keyes Gwendolyn Pough Bernice Johnson Reagon Mark Tucker and Sherrie Tucker Aliveness Mindset Jack Craven, 2024-04-02 Jack Craven s Aliveness Mindset is an invitation for anyone feeling stuck to awaken to a life of renewed passion greater purpose and authentic joy When did you last feel truly alive What if you could experience that feeling not just once in a while but every single day That is the promise and goal of an Aliveness Mindset You are fully capable of bringing the best most vibrantly alive version of yourself into the world day after day Aliveness is already within you but you have to define it and find it guard it and grow it It must be discovered because you are unique and so is your experience of aliveness In Aliveness Mindset executive coach Jack Craven shares the principles and strategies he has used to lead countless CEOs and high level business leaders into a more fulfilling authentic life His practices are not a series of impersonal steps or a formula to blindly follow but rather an organic process of self understanding and personal growth In Aliveness Mindset you will 1 Create your own Aliveness Mindset 2 Learn the simple yet powerful components of the Circle of Aliveness 3 Discover the unique way you experience aliveness and how to remain in this Optimal State despite the ups and downs of life 4 Understand the seven components of an Aliveness Mindset and how
