

Barber: We are a more robust Edwards, relative performance doesn't change much. Perhaps other performance may also change, but not necessarily in the right direction, and maybe not like Barber thinks. Barber's position is the right direction. Character is not the same thing as performance.

the first time in the history of the country, the people of the United States have been compelled to go to war with a foreign power, and to do so in a cause which, in the judgment of the world, is not just. The war has been declared by Congress, and the President has been authorized to use the military power of the country to put down rebellion. The people of the United States are now engaged in a war of self-defense, and are fighting for the preservation of their national existence. The war is being conducted in a just and righteous cause, and the people of the United States are fighting for the right and the freedom of the people of the South.
