Visions of Zion Erin C. MacLeod, 2014 In reggae song after reggae song Bob Marley and other reggae singers speak of the Promised Land of Ethiopia Repatriation is a must they cry The Rastafari have been travelling to Ethiopia since the movement originated in Jamaica in 1930s They consider it the Promised Land and repatriation is a cornerstone of their faith Though Ethiopians see Rastafari as immigrants the Rastafari see themselves as returning members of the Ethiopian diaspora In Visions of Zion Erin C MacLeod offers the first in depth investigation into how Ethiopians perceive Rastafari and Rastafarians within Ethiopia and the role this unique immigrant community plays within Ethiopian society Rastafari are unusual among migrants basing their movements on spiritual rather than economic choices This volume offers those who study the movement a broader understanding of the implications of repatriation Taking the Ethiopian perspective into account it argues that migrant and diaspora identities are the products of negotiation and it illuminates the implications of this negotiation for concepts of citizenship as well as for our understandings of pan Africanism and south south migration Providing a rare look at migration to a non Western country this volume also fills a gap in the broader immigration studies literature
