A New Look At The Lutheran Confessions 1529 1537:

A New Look at the Lutheran Confessions (1529-1537) Holsten Fagerberg,1972 Examines the continuing relevance of the Lutheran Confessions Fortress Introduction to the Lutheran Confessions Günther Gassmann,1999 Gassmann and Hendrix expertly present the historical context for the Reformation in its beginnings and development as background to the emergence and gathering of the Confessions Core chapters then explore 1 the structure of faith Scripture as norm law gospel framework the Trinity and justification 2 Christian community the sacraments ministry the nature of the church and 3 the Christian life the two reigns sin sanctification eternal life A final chapter examines the role the Confessions play in today's ecumenical pluralistic environment 'Justification by Grace Alone' Facing Confucian Self-Cultivation Arne Redse,2015-09-29 Chinese contexts as influenced by the religious moral philosophy of New Confucianism are characterized by the idea of becoming a sage through self cultivation For Christian theology with its emphasis on God's grace rather than on self cultivation Confucian teaching in this matter may appear as a problem Chinese Christian theology may ask How can the Christian doctrine of justification by grace alone be contextualized in Chinese contexts which are characterized by the contradicting idea of self cultivation Another question may be equally interesting for Christian theology in all contexts Which insights can be attained from an attempt at contextualizing the Christian doctrine of justification to contexts influenced by New Confucianism In this book professor Arne Redse contributes to answering these questions

Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann,Mark W. Oldenburg,2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483 1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism

Stackhouse Jr Tite Ti nou and Kevin J Vanhoozer A Case for Character Joel D. Biermann, 2014-05-01 Over the last several decades perceptive observers of Western civilization have documented what virtually everyone has perceived as the old foundations of society have toppled morality and personal character have been set adrift and often vanished altogether How can character be cultivated when it seems no one is willing or able to provide a definitive description of character to which humans should aspire While the reasons for this are many and complicated one of the more potent singular factors is actually theological says Biermann Contemporary Lutheranism in particular has struggled with the appropriate place of morality and character formation as these pursuits often have been perceived as being at odds with the central Christian doctrine of justification A Case for Character explores this problem and argues that Christian doctrine specifically as articulated within a Lutheran framework is altogether capable of encouraging a robust pursuit of character formation while maintaining a faithful expression of justification by grace alone through faith alone
