

The background of the entire image is an abstract, textured composition of numerous overlapping brushstrokes. The color palette is dominated by various shades of red, from deep maroon and burgundy to bright, almost white highlights, as well as earthy browns and greys. The strokes are applied in a dynamic, expressive manner, creating a sense of movement and depth. A semi-transparent red rounded rectangle is centered over the image, serving as a backdrop for the title and author information.

and Emotion challenges the conventional assumption that emotion is inherently unpredictable stressful or a personal quality inconsistent with impartiality Extensive empirical research with Australian judicial officers demonstrates the ways emotion emotional capacities and emotion work are integral to judicial practice Judging and Emotion articulates a broader conception of emotion as a social practice emerging from interaction and demonstrates how judicial officers undertake emotion work and use emotion as a resource to achieve impartiality A key insight is that institutional requirements including conceptions of impartiality as dispassion do not completely determine the emotion dimensions of judicial work Through their everyday work judicial officers construct and maintain the boundaries of an impartial judicial role which necessarily incorporates emotion and emotion work Building on a growing interest in emotion in law and social sciences this book will be of considerable importance to socio legal scholars sociologists the judiciary legal practitioners and all users of the courts The Pall Mall Magazine ,1907 Rambling Verses Solomon L,2021-10-07 A collection of poems about love heartbreak life and one man s view of death with snippets of other subjects in between Each poem is accompanied by corresponding visual picture or illustration about the poem ReFocus: The Films of Preston Sturges Jeff Jaeckle,2015-10-08 This first collection of critical essays on Preston Sturges director screenwriter comic genius of Hollywood reawakens interest in the filmmaker s life and works and reminds readers why his movies continue to be culturally significant and immensely enjoyable Pet Loss and Children Cheri Barton Ross,2013-05-13 Explaining the concept of death to a child is a very difficult confusing and uncomfortable experience for a parent educator or therapist and it is a topic that is often first introduced by the loss of a pet sometimes a child s earliest exposure to loss and grief There is an undeniably special bond that develops between people and their pets especially between animals and young children and while the death of a pet can be devastating to an adult children are often deeply affected by such a loss Without readily available outlets for their feelings the trauma of pet loss can remain with a child for life and without help many adults feel inadequate and not up to the task The aim of this book is to provide therapists counselors educators parents social workers veterinarians and physicians with resources to help children cope with the loss of a pet Beyond Temptation Audrey Boss,Sophie Boss,2012-09-06 In Beyond Temptation Sophie and Audrey Boss offer a radical alternative to the tried and tested methods used to combat overeating which either encourage women to rely on willpower alone or legitimise overeating by providing lists of free foods on which women are actively encouraged to binge This book doesn t rely on NLP CBT or life coaching techniques but instead draws on the authors own experiences as two overweight and unhappy overeaters and their ten years of experience working with thousands of failed dieters in the Beyond Chocolate workshops and the successful techniques used in their newly established Stop Overeating workshops to offer women a practical sustainable approach to stopping overeating and achieving long term weight loss The Psychology of Emotion K.
