A Place In The Sun Part Two:

Faust: Part Two J. W. von Goethe, 2008-05-08 Loosely connected with Part One and the German legend of Faust Part Two is a dramatic epic rather than a strictly constructed drama. It is conceived as an act of homage to classical Greek culture and inspired above all by the world of story telling and myth at the heart of the Greek tradition as well as owing some of its material to the Arabian Nights tales. The restless and ruthless hero advised by his cynical demon companion Mephistopheles visits classical Greece in search of the beautiful Helen of Troy. Returning to modern times he seeks to crown his career by gaining control of the elements and at his death is carried up into the unknown regions still in pursuit of the Eternal Feminine. David Luke's translation of Part One won the European Poetry Translation Prize. Here he again imitates the varied verse forms of the original and provides a highly readable andactable translation supported by an introduction full notes and an index of classical mythology.

The Citizen and the Chinese State Perry Keller, 2017-03-02 This volume addresses several core questions regarding the nature of law in China and its future development. In particular these articles shed light on whether the rule of law ideal is commensurable with government based on the Chinese Communist Party. Beginning virtually from scratch China has established a comprehensive legal system that boasts a constitution primary and secondary legislation and plentiful regulations covering most areas of public and private life. Yet as these articles discuss its courts are enmeshed in Party and state hierarchies and are not empowered to directly apply constitutional principles or rights ensuring that the law is subordinate to national public policy goals. Legal and extra legal methods for punishing wrongdoing and resolving disputes also raise questions of due process of law. Ultimately the question is therefore whether China's legal system if eschewing formalised human rights is developing a capacity to protect fundamental human dignity.
